Stalker is jailed for campaign against ex

A STALKER who mounted a five-month campaign of terror against his ex-girlfriend has been jailed.

Peter Atkinson, of Curlew Hill, Chads Moor, bombarded his ex with calls and texts, posted a naked picture he claimed was her on Facebook and followed her, taking pictures of her car and sending them to her phone to prove he was watching.

Exeter Crown Court heard how his victim felt terrified of looking out of the window or leaving her home in Newton Abbot, Devon. Atkinson, aged 20, continued to target her after he was arrested and held in Exeter Prison – making a threatening call from the jail's landline.

Atkinson admitted harassment and to harassing another man by sending him abusive messages. He pleaded guilty to dangerous driving, driving with false plates and without a licence or insurance and handling a stolen car and was jailed for a total of 40 months.

Mr Gordon Richings, prosecuting, said the relationship between Atkinson and his ex had ended because of his controlling behaviour and jealousy.

Miss Emily Pitts, defending, said Atkinson had been immature and emotional but accepts he was wrong.

Fire station work starts

WORK on Penkridge's new £1.8 million community fire station is set to get under way next week.

The state-of-the-art facility will replace the existing station on Boscomoor Lane which has been operational since 1972. Work should start on Monday, August 4.

It is part of a £45m Private Finance Initiative to rebuild 10 fire stations on their current sites.

Penkridge Community Fire Station is scheduled to be operational towards the end of 2015.

Legal advice sought over hospital shake-up

COUNCIL chiefs have sought legal advice amid concerns about the transfer of services from Stafford Hospital.

Stafford Borough Council has sent out letters to the administrators currently running Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust, the University Hospital North Staffordshire NHS Trust, regulator Monitor, NHS England, NHS Trust Development Authority, Stafford and Surrounds Clinical Commissioning Group and West Midlands Ambulance Service.

Bosses are worried about how the plan to move some services due to the dissolution of Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust is being implemented. Council leader Mike Heenan said: "It was recently revealed at the health scrutiny committee that the current implementation process was not following the recommendations in full.

"Members will also be aware that the Care Quality Commission indicated there was no robust implementation plan.

"Accordingly I asked for advice from our lawyers if any questions needed to be asked of those bodies currently involved in the implementation process and they have produced a comprehensive set of questions which they proposed should be sent." The University Hospital of North Staffordshire is set to take over the running of Stafford Hospital with the Royal Wolverhampton Trust taking over Cannock Chase Hospital.

Major services such as maternity, accident and emergency, and paediatrics are set to be removed or downgraded.

Meanwhile, campaigners who set up camp at Stafford Hospital more than a week ago say they intend to stay until services are saved.

Dozens of tents have been pitched in the grounds of the Weston Road site in protest at cuts to services. More than 50 people are currently still camping at the site and scores more have visited protesters to show their support with many taking along donations of food and camping equipment.

Support Stafford Hospital campaigner, 63-year-old grandmother Lol Barnes, said: "I will stay as long as it takes, even if it is next year. As far as I'm concerned I'm staying here until we get some positive news this hospital will stay open and will be able to retain our services.

"This hospital is imperative."

Marches in towns to honour war dead

HUNDREDS of people are expected to commemorate the centenary of the start of the First World War with a programme of marches and services.

The Staffordshire Regimental Association will lead town centre marches on Saturday. Marches and memorial services take place in Cannock between 10.30am and 11.30am, at Hednesford from 1.30-2.30pm and Rugeley between 3.30 and 4.30pm. Music will be provided by Rugeley Power Station Brass Band and Lichfield 1206 (Mercian) Air Training Corps of Drums.

The day will end with a special concert at the Prince of Wales Centre, Church Street, Cannock, at 7pm with music from the Band of the West Midlands Fire Service.

Great Wyrley Royal British Legion will join in a parade at Bloxwich Carnival on Saturday, at King George V playing fields, Stafford Road.

Members will then muster at 2.30pm on Sunday for a service at St Mark's Church, followed by a salute in the Memorial Gardens, in Walsall Road, and then a parade to Harrison's Sports and Social Club, in Wharwell Lane. On Monday a candlelit vigil will be held at the Memorial Gates at 10.30pm.

No identity on body find

A POST mortem carried out on a body found in a Burntwood field has proved inconclusive, say police.

The discovery was made last Tuesday (July 22) on farmland off Meerash Lane and is believed to be that of missing Walsall woman Amanda Hawkins, aged 44.

Further tests will be carried out and a report is being prepared for the coroner. The death is being treated as unexplained but not suspicious, Staffordshire Police say.

BIG RESPONSE TO CUTS PLAN

THOUSANDS of extra consultation forms on library cuts have been printed by council bosses in response to public demand.

An additional 9,000 documents have been produced by Staffordshire County Council.

The initial 5,000 print-run was nearly exhausted in just one week since consultation began.

Council bosses say volunteers taking over some libraries would save the council £1.3 million over the course of three years.

Jobs would be put at risk, but the council insists there are no plans to close buildings.

Views

Face-to-face sessions were due to begin this week and users are urged to make their views known.

Library boss Councillor Mike Lawrence said there had been a great deal of interest so far and it showed that people were passionate about their libraries.

He said: "We've already received around 50 written responses, as well as 450 online forms completed, and this confirms what I already knew – that people are passionate about their libraries and finding the best way for them to remain relevant and popular for years to come.

"We want as many people as possible to tell us what they want from their local library and to tell us how they want to be involved."

Consultation runs until October. Eight question and answer sessions, plus workshops, will be staged during the 12-week period.

Views can also be made online or by post.

The proposals include the creation of three new types of library, dubbed: 'library extra', 'library core' and 'library local'.

Concerns over homes bid at pub

Regulars from the Pied Piper in Cannock, led by Don Taylor from Camra, protesting about the planned closure and sale of the pub

RESIDENTS and real ale enthusiasts have voiced concerns over the loss of a popular Cannock pub to make way for a housing development.

The Pied Piper in Pye Green Road is one of 200 pubs being put up for sale by Marston's. Plans have been submitted to Cannock Chase Council for 16 flats together with two semi-detached bungalows.

The Campaign for Real Ale has launched a petition and more than 100 names have so far been collected.

Campaigner Nigel Moore said the pub had been at the centre of social life in that area for almost 60 years. "It would be an immeasurable loss if demolished and turned into housing," he said.

Neighbours have expressed concerns over the development. The firm behind the plans, HB Village Developments, says it will provide assisted living accommodation and that residents would be kept fully informed throughout the planning process.

A spokesman said those living there would be 'vulnerable adults who need a home to live in a decent location, in both the manner and dignity that they deserve'.

Marston's confirmed the pub was up for sale, subject to planning permission for a change of use being granted. It remains open for the foreseeable future.

A meeting about the plans is being held at the pub from 7pm tonight (Thursday).

Distribution centre visit is sorted

A CLASS of schoolchildren has been learning about the UK's largest parcel distribution firm.

Twenty Year Five pupils from Jerome Primary in Norton Canes were invited by APC Overnight for a tour of its 138,000 sq ft national centre at Kingswood Lakeside.

During the tour, the pupils, aged nine and 10, were able to find out more about how the overnight parcel industry operates, and how APC Overnight is able to deliver millions of parcels every month, through its national network of 115 depots.

Tara Barnes, head of sales and marketing at the firm, said: "As one of the largest businesses in the local area, we recognise just how important it is to involve the community in our day-to-day operation."

"With Jerome Primary School sitting right on our doorstep, were only too happy to welcome a group of pupils to show them exactly what goes on at our national centre, and to give them a feel for how our industry provides a vital service to so many customers around the country."

"It was great to see such enthusiasm shown by the children and we'd be more than happy to welcome them back again in the future."

CCGs reported over a £45m black hole

HEALTH bosses in Staffordshire have been reported to the Health Secretary over their dire finances after overspending £45 million of taxpayers' cash.

Clinical commissioning groups covering Cannock, Stafford, Burntwood and Lichfield, have run up deficits to the tune of nearly £25 million while the University Hospital of North Staffordshire in Stoke - which is taking over Stafford Hospital - overspent by £19m last year.

Hopes on fewer ops cancelled

HEALTH bosses say they hope fewer operations will be cancelled as plans to take over Cannock Chase Hospital are finalised.

Patients at New Cross Hospital in Wolverhampton are being asked for their opinion on the takeover, which will see non-emergency surgery take place at Cannock.

Shuttle buses will ferry patients between the two sites. A consultation has now been launched.

Bosses at both the Royal Wolverhampton NHS Trust and healthcare funder Wolverhampton Clinical Commissioning Group, have commissioned the consultation. It will run until September 5.

Trust chief executive David Loughton, said: "When we take over the management of Cannock Chase Hospital, this will give us an opportunity to protect planned care from the pressures of emergency care by carrying out more routine treatment at Cannock."

A public meeting takes place on August 6 from 6-8pm at the Mercure Goldthorn Hotel in Penn Road. Places can be booked at wolccg.wccg@nhs.net or on 01902 444878.

The Audit Commission's controller of audit, Marcine Waterman said: "This level of reporting is worrying and reflects the increasing risks to the financial sustainability of individual NHS trusts, as they continue to face sizeable financial pressures while balancing the need for continued cost savings."

Stafford and Surrounds and Cannock Chase CCG said a plan was in place to keep costs down by working with partner organisations.

A University Hospital of North Staffordshire spokesman said: "Last year the trust reduced its planned deficit from £31.7 million to £19.3 million and we have plans to return to surplus in the forthcoming years."

A Department of Health spokesman said: "It is essential that trust CEOs have a tight financial grip and ensure they live within their means."

Ale aboard at family day

Christian Hutton enjoys a pint with a Marston's Brewery 1953 Baguley

VISITORS worked up a head of steam at a family day at Chasewater Railway.

The attraction held its Burton Brewery Locomotive Day that featured trains from the Staffordshire town's three famous beer makers.

Almost 2,000 people turned up to have a look at four diesel locomotives that once shunted beer around the Bass, Worthington and Marston's sites in Burton-Upon-Trent.

Visitors could also sample beers from Burton Bridge Brewery aboard a steam locomotive that ran trips along the line in Burntwood.

Railway enthusiast and volunteer Bryan Marks said: "It's been a fantastic event and very well attended."

"People have been able to enjoy seeing the engines doing what they do best while enjoying a pint of lovely beer."

Visitors could also see trucks dating back to the 1920s that were used alongside the trains to transport beer and brewing materials.

New boss for cancer service overhaul

A NEW health boss has been appointed to lead an overhaul of Staffordshire's cancer services.

Dr Jonathan Shapiro is directing a joint project between clinicians and Macmillan Cancer Care to improve cancer and end of life care in the county.

Justine Palin, Macmillan programme director said: "We are delighted to welcome Jonathan to the team."

"His appointment demonstrates our continued determination to ensure that the transforming cancer and end of life programme is successful, both in terms of patient outcomes but also in terms of making life better for people who work within the NHS."

Mr Shapiro said: "We know that patients and carers are telling us that things are not as they should be - they get lost in the system, they have to tell their story several times and they don't know where to turn to for the right support."

"This programme is all about improving patient experience, but we can't do that without continuing the work we have already done in talking to healthcare professionals and clinical leaders within the county and beyond."

Three hurt as car overturns

THREE people were taken to hospital after a car overturned on Cannock Chase.

Emergency services were called to a field near to the visitor centre off Marquis Drive, shortly after 11.35pm on Saturday (July 26).

A West Midlands Ambulance Service spokeswoman said: "On arrival at the scene, crews found a car that had overturned and was upside down in a field."

All three were aged in their 20s. One man suffered shoulder and abdominal pain. A second man suffered a head injury, back and neck pain while a woman that was also in the car suffered a head injury.

Children's fun

A RANGE of activities from face painting, crafts and tombola will be part of a family fun day on Monday (August 4). It takes place at Penkridge Children's Centre, Princefield School, Saxton Road, from 10am to 3pm.

Changes on buses as service reviewed

A BUS service running between Hednesford and Brownhills has been withdrawn. A slump in users has been blamed.

The 32 bus run by Arriva Midland, serving Hednesford, Cannock, Heath Hayes and Brownhills, has been considered no longer sustainable on a commercial basis and has been taken off following a review.

It is being partially replaced by the 33 service.

Arriva bosses say they have reviewed services to provide regular, punctual and robust bus transport.

The timetable for the service 31 between Rugeley and Cannock has been revised with buses running up to every 30 minutes.

Service 33 which goes between Rugeley, Heath Hayes, Clayhanger, Pelsall and Walsall will run every 20 minutes.

Arriva Midlands regional marketing and communications manager Keith Myatt said: "Following recent monitoring the need to make changes to bus services in the Cannock, Heath Hayes, Norton Canes, Brownhills and Walsall areas has been highlighted.

"We have worked closely with Centro to deliver improvements to service 33."

A barbecue and refreshments will be available.

Admission is £4 per child, or £3 in advance. Call 01889 880100 for more details.

Turf-cutting marks start of college project

Linkage chair of trustees Michael Oliver, Principal Graham Morley, Luke Ford, Matthew Orford and Ray

A TURF-cutting ceremony at South Staffordshire College's Rodbaston campus marked the beginning of a £1.4 million project for disabled students.

A timber building will house facilities including classrooms, a skills kitchen, chill-out zone, IT room, drama and administration areas, toilets and a medical room.

At the event were chairman of governors Ray Faulkner, chief executive principal Graham Morley and Michael Oliver, chairman of trustees at Linkage Community Trust. The Lincolnshire-based charity delivers specialist education, care and employment support to disabled residential and day students aged 16-to-25.

The trust's director of education and Linkage College principal Matthew Orford also attended.

The main contractor for the 750-square metre £1.4m project is Fords of Blythe Bridge. For Luke Ford the government-funded development is especially poignant.

His grandfather studied agriculture on the same site in the 1920s and was the college's head boy.

Mr Ford said: "This is a project we are delighted to be involved with."

Programmes at the centre will cover mobility, communications, speech and language therapy, and personal, social and health education.

Historic Ivy House saved as homes plan dropped

THE historic Ivy House in Cannock has been saved from the bulldozers after developers pulled out of plans to replace it with housing.

The proposals were thrown out by council bosses in May – but developers Wrekin Housing had been considering whether to appeal.

Now the firm has revealed it has dropped the project completely and will not submit any revised plans.

Campaigners are celebrating after fighting for the last 18 months to save the 143-year-old former workhouse and maternity hospital in Wolverhampton Road.

Plans were drawn up to replace it with 12 houses and four flats – and were recommended for approval by Cannock Chase Council's planning committee.

Fresh

But councillors were persuaded by the arguments of protesters who collected a 1,173-name petition – and consent was refused.

Campaigner Margaret Price, of Wolverhampton Road, said she had been ready to launch a new fight as they expected fresh plans to be submitted.

But she added she was concerned about what would now happen to the building.

She said: "We don't want it to be knocked down and that is what we have fought for."

"But we don't want it to fall into disrepair so we need to keep going and make sure something positive is done with it."

She said residents had suggested turning it into a GP practice.

"We want to keep its character but make sure it is used by people."

"The whole problem was that they wanted to demolish it, when it is about the only well-known historic building in Cannock."

The house remains in the hands of Staffordshire County Council.

A statement by Wrekin Housing Trust said: "The rejection of our application for planning to build these much needed affordable homes was disappointing particularly as they would have gone towards meeting the Local Housing strategy of 197 new, affordable homes a year."

Parts of Ivy House date back to 1870 when it was built as the Penkridge Poor Law Union's Workhouse. It later became The Chase Hospital.

Councillors' advice surgery

BURNTWOOD'S Labour Councillors for Boney Hay, Chase Terrace, Chasetown and Summerfield Wards will be holding their regular surgeries this Saturday (August 2). Members of the public can find out the latest on the county council's library closure programme and to get the latest news on Burntwood health centres. No booking is needed, residents can just turn up at Burntwood Library, Sankeys Corner, between 10 and 11am.

Hannah Mahon, Lottie Mullins and Sharon Trow celebrate Mia Sorella's first anniversary

A family affair as salon is year old

A MOTHER and her two daughters are celebrating the first birthday of their hair and beauty salon.

Sharon Trow, aged 48, and daughters Hannah Mahon, 27, and Lottie Mullins, 18, opened Mia Sorella in Walsall Road, Great Wyrley, within a month of securing the premises.

Hannah said: "Setting up the business has been the best decision we ever made and we all love working together as a family."

"It has been a lot of hard work but we have all enjoyed every second. We are now all looking forward to the year ahead."

"We currently have two beauticians and a stylist who rent salon space and we have taken on an apprentice who starts in September."

The sisters attended Great Wyrley High School with Charlotte later doing a hairdressing course at South Staffordshire College in Cannock.

Hannah trained privately and Sharon, who worked as a director until two months ago, is currently training to do hair and beauty.

A celebration event offered customers half-price treatments and Hannah said: "Everyone has been so supportive."

THE BEST OF PETER RHODES

THE Church of England has ditched the Devil from baptisms, so can we assume that Hell is no longer with us? If so, we will need a new range of expressions. It was announced this week that the Church is planning to use positive discrimination to hand out bishops' jobs to female priests. So if you are a newly-ordained male priest, what are your chances of making it to the top, now that 'a cat in hell's chance' is redundant?

AND off, on a blissfully warm summer's evening, to the Royal Shakespeare Theatre where Stratford Coughing Society seems to be out in force. One person coughs and two or three others join in. Some are subdued "ahems" but others simply cough, hackety-hack, open-mouthed over the folks in front.

A READER who happens to be a retired cop, complains bitterly about the lack of interest, let alone response, he got from dialling the 101 non-emergency number. This alternative to 999 is, quite literally, a cop-out. According to the Police UK website, 'non-emergency' incidents for which 101 is deemed suitable are: Your car has been stolen, your property damaged or if you suspect drug use or dealing in your neighbourhood. And if you spot fly-tipping or damage of public property, the cops don't want to know about it at all. Apparently such incidents are a matter for your local council. There is no better way to cut crime than to decriminalise criminal behaviour. And you wonder why the figures for recorded crime keep falling?

JEREMY Paxman's replacement on Newsnight is the openly gay Evan Davis. There is much speculation about how the tattooed and (allegedly) intimately pierced Mr Davis will tackle the big interviews. One commentator says his appointment will reinforce the BBC's diversity agenda and bring "a light touch." The implication is that a gay inquisitor will be gentler than Paxo because that's what gays are like, right? Consider this. Staffordshire Police, thanks to its diversity employment policies, is proud to be known as one of Britain's most gay-friendly employers. You are more likely to encounter a gay bobby in Staffordshire than anywhere else in Britain. So is the constabulary full of "light touch" bobbies? Not exactly. A survey this week reveals that you are more likely to be Tasered by cops in Staffordshire than in any other county. Explain that.

the constabulary full of "light touch" bobbies? Not exactly. A survey this week reveals that you are more likely to be Tasered by cops in Staffordshire than in any other county. Explain that.

QUIETLY, very quietly, while all eyes were on Gaza and Ukraine, Whitehall made a tiny announcement. Until now, for every year you delay drawing your state pension, its value increases by 10.4 per cent. From 2016 this will be cut to 5.8 per cent. Just like that. There are lies, damned lies and pension promises.

SO there is to be a full inquiry into the death by poisoning in 2006 of the former KGB agent Alexander Litvinenko. Any chance of an inquiry into the death of Dr David Kelly who was found dead during the Iraq war inquiry in 2003? I guess not. How strange it is that the death of a foreigner, probably murdered by his own people, gets proper attention but our own Dr Kelly, a national hero and a hugely principled man, has been denied even an inquest.

ONE of the most impressive statistics to emerge from the Ukraine airline disaster is that at the moment it happened, on a pretty average flying day, there were an estimated 10,000 airliners in the skies. Those Wright Brothers really started something.

Fire hydrants call in wake of major blaze

RESIDENTS living on a mobile home park near Cannock have called for fire hydrants to be installed in the wake of a ferocious fire nearby.

Homeowners at Cavans Wood in Huntington, also want a new entrance and exit created to they can get out quicker in case of an emergency.

It comes after 30 firefighters were called to tackle a blaze in a straw field bordering West Chadsmoor and Huntington. The fire is believed to have been the work of young arsonists.

Crews from Cannock, Brewood, Stafford, Rugeley and Lichfield battled flames last Tuesday afternoon, which rose 100ft in the air, for more than an hour in the 100m by 300m field.

Thelma Cook has lived on the mobile home park for more than 20 years and first raised the alarm.

Brigade

She said the fire had come within 15 feet of her home.

"I could smell burning and I saw the fire getting closer to my home. It was really frightening," she said. "I told my husband to ring the fire brigade immediately and they responded in minutes."

"This kind of thing happens at least once a year during the summer holidays but I have never seen a fire on this scale before."

"It's really scary because we have no fire hydrants on the site and there is only one entrance and exit so I intend to write to the council because that is very worrying. If everyone was trying to get out at once and fire engines were trying to get in there would be chaos and someone could get seriously hurt."

She added: "I didn't know what to do but having a fire hydrant would have been a little more comforting."

"If we had to evacuate the park I don't know what would have happened because there are a lot of elderly people who live here and it would have been very difficult for some of them having to get out."

Residents used garden hoses to help crews stop the flames edging closer to their homes.

The park has one way in and out, but families are asking for another to be built to help emergency services gain access more easily.

Conflict remembered

A COMMEMORATIVE book written by Norton Canes High School pupils to mark the Great War anniversary will be on display this weekend. It has been written about those from the village who died during the conflict and will be on show at the community centre in Brownhills Road, from 3-5pm on Sunday, August 3.

Artwork will also be shown and there will be an exhibition by Norton Canes Historical Society together with a film and a short service of remembrance and thanksgiving.

There will be a chance to sample First World War food and hear music from the time. The Royal British Legion and Scouts will be in attendance. Admission is free.

Singing postie in fine Voice

Postman Nathan Farrell celebrates the release of his second single

A SINGING postman who landed a deal with a record company has released his second single.

Nathan Farrell, who delivers the post in Great Wyrley and Cheslyn Hay, hopes his latest track, entitled Keep Your Dreams Alive, could be his breakthrough moment.

The 28-year-old from Bloxwich is signed with the Downtown Artists label. His first single The Closer You Come came out last year.

He said: "I signed with the record label back in 2012 but because I work six days a week it has taken some time to get the recordings finished. I personally think it is a better song than the first one."

Father-of-two Mr Farrell has dedicated the latest single in memory of his late cousin Alan Webster, 47.

The postie has also auditioned for BBC's The Voice. He took part in pre-auditions in Birmingham and is waiting to hear if he has made it through to the TV stages. His singles are available on iTunes and Amazon.

Poignant service at revamped memorial

A REFURBISHED war memorial is to be re-dedicated in a poignant ceremony on the eve of the centenary of the outbreak of the First World War.

The service, on Sunday, August 3 at St Michael and All Angels Church in Penkridge will be preceded by a parade from the Haling Dene Centre in Cannock Road.

There will be a concert by Trentham Brass Band in the Haling Dene afterwards.

The parade will leave the centre at 1.40pm for the 2pm re-dedication.

The event has been organised by the local branch of The Royal British Legion together with Penkridge Parish Council.

Vigil

That evening, for the hour leading up to 11pm, there will be a candlelit vigil at the church.

It will coincide with the Legion's nationwide 'Lights Out - One Million Candles to Remember' event. August 4 marks the 100th anniversary of the outbreak of the Great War.

The parish council funded the repair and refurbishment of the war memorial to mark the milestone.

Band plays as pub reopens

A POPULAR Norton Canes pub is to reopen following a £225,000 makeover.

The Yew Tree in Jerome Road will mark the opening tomorrow night (Friday) with a performance from 60s band the Sorrows. A disco on Saturday will continue the celebrations.

The refurbishment has been carried out by owners Punch Taverns in conjunction with licensees Glen and Paula Lomas. They already run the Dog & Partridge in Calf Heath and have now taken on their second pub with the company.

It will be managed on a day-to-day basis by Paula's daughter Carol Bird.

Hunt for man after indecent exposure

POLICE are hunting a man who indecently exposed himself to a woman in Chesham Hay.

The victim was with her dog on tracks near Hatherston Reservoir that are popular with walkers and runners.

The man approached her from out of the bushes at around 6.50am last Wednesday (July 23) and then exposed himself before trying, in vain, to grab hold of the woman.

The offender is described as white aged between 40 and 50, about 5 ft 10 in tall with a thin face and short, brown and grey dirty hair.

Cracked

He was unshaven and had blue eyes and his nose was reddened.

He was wearing a dirty white T-shirt, dirty blue jeans and was carrying a red lightweight jacket. He wore old white trainers which were cracked at the toe crease on his feet, his hands and nails were dirty and he smelled of alcohol and smoke.

Anyone with any information is asked to call 101 quoting incident number 135 of July 23 or call Crime-stoppers on 0800 555 111.

Family fun at museum

VISITORS to the Museum of Cannock Chase can make Swedish fruit baskets in a craft workshop next week.

Dave Knowles from the Forest of Mercia will be running the free class on Tuesday, August 5, from 9.30am to 1pm at the Valley Road, Hednesford, venue. Booking is essential on 01543 877666.

Further sessions will follow on August 11, making round trays and on August 26, a willow bird workshop.

This Sunday, August 3, is summer family fun day, from noon to 4pm, featuring drop-in arts, Punch & Judy, face painting, storytelling, willow weaving and more.

Nine-mile walk

CHASE & District Group Ramblers meet for a nine-mile walk Caer Caradoc, Church Stretton, this weekend. Departure time on Sunday (August 3) is 9am from Hednesford railway station car park, Anglesey Street.

Pub to be converted into dental surgery

The Railway Inn, Clay Street, Penkridge

WORK has begun on turning a crime-hit Penkridge pub into a dental surgery.

The new surgery, to be run by Brewood Dental Practice, will take the place of the former Railway Inn in Clay Street, which had its hours cut due to crime and disorder. Demolition work has started at the back of the property ahead of the site being fitted out as a dental surgery.

Officers had been called to the pub on numerous occasions due to a catalogue of licence breaches. These included the late-night supply of alcohol that led to violence, plus noise nuisance, trading without a designated premises supervisor and holding unauthorised events.

The building will now be converted and will feature two surgeries and a decontamination room.

Development will see the retention of the listed parts of the building and the demolition of the smoking shelter and function room to the side.

Surgery staff hope to move in by September next year.

It is moving to Penkridge as a result of the multi-million pound expansion taking place at Brewood Medical Practice, which was given the green light by planners last September. Surgery owner Philip Garbett ran the Brewood surgery for 23 years and will run the new practice.

He said: "The development is expected to take just under a year."

"The building is listed in parts, so we'll be keeping those bits and demolishing the function room and smoking area."

"We'll be putting in a new entrance and building new toilets, as well as putting in two surgeries and a decontamination room."

"This means we will have a brand new purpose-built surgery."

Roadworks have killed town trade say angry businesses

BUSINESSES in Rugeley say 'catastrophic' roadworks which are way behind schedule have killed off trade in the town.

The £500,000 project, centring on Horse Fair and Wharf Road, is due to finish some five months later than expected and months at least 20 businesses say they are fearing for their future.

The traders say they have seen footfall drastically drop with shoppers and motorists avoiding the town because of the works.

The scheme started last October and should be finally completed by the end of August. It should have been finished in March.

The carriageway is being reduced to single-lane traffic, traffic lights are being replaced with roundabouts and parking spaces are being created within a central reservation.

But the scheme has been plagued with problems - including incorrect signage going up, wrong kerbstones being delivered, and a damaged BT box delaying work.

Plagued

Chris Green, chairman of Rugeley Traders Association, said: "It is a complete waste of time and money."

"At least 20 of our members are seriously considering whether or not to continue trading."

Vice chairman Angi Cooney, who runs C Residential estate agents, said: "It has had a catastrophic effect on business."

County Council infrastructure boss councillor Mark Winnington said: "The Horse Fair project has been a major scheme for the town and will make a huge difference in terms of attracting more visitors, boosting the local economy and attracting new investment and jobs."

Skaters ramp it up at new facility

Anthony Ackers, of Cannock, tries out the new £70,000 skate park that has opened in Great Wyrley

A NEW £70,000 skate park has been officially opened in Great Wyrley - after keen young people helped with its design.

The long-awaited facility has been created in Landywood Lane and is expected to be used by hundreds of skateboard enthusiasts over the summer holidays.

Funding for the new-look skate park was secured from a number of sources including Great Wyrley parish and South Staffordshire District councils. The majority of the cash was provided through the Veolia Environmental Trust and replaces a previous facility located nearby.

The parish council has helped to lead the project and sought the advice of youngsters from the area. This included the youngsters setting up a stall at the village carnival last year.

The skate park was officially opened last week. Parish council chairman Kath Perry was at the launch and said it was already proving to be a success.

"We decided we were going to have a new skate park so we got the young people involved, it was developed around about what they would have liked," she said.

"Lots of young people are thoroughly enjoying what is there."

"It is very good and there were all ages of young people on there and some fantastic tricks." She said that the old skate park was due to be taken down now that the modern facility is in use.

Residents in the pink for fundraiser

RESIDENTS on a Cannock estate will be in the pink as they raise money for charity next weekend.

People living in the Bevan Lee area are hosting a pink tea party in aid of Breast Cancer Care.

It takes place on Sunday, August 10, at the community centre in Bevan Lee Road, from 2-5pm.

All are welcome. Among the attractions will be refreshments, stalls and games.

There will also be a clairvoyant in attendance.

More details can be obtained by calling Margaret on 01543 503618.

Homes plan at old Legion site

HOUSES could be built on the site of the former Royal British Legion premises in Rugeley.

Four two-bedroom houses would be built on the land in Bow Street.

The proposals were being recommended for approval by Cannock Chase Council's planning committee, which was meeting yesterday (Wednesday).

The terraced houses would be built where the club stood. It has been demolished after closing last year.

Monthly disco at memorial hall

A DISCO for adults with learning difficulties takes place tomorrow night (Friday).

The Stars monthly disco is staged by the Gateway Club in Burntwood. It is run by and for vulnerable adults and takes place at Burntwood Memorial Hall, Rugeley Road, from 7-10pm.

Admission is £3 per person. More details from Anne on 01543 301497.

Shoal Hill is site for free bat walk

THE Cannock Group of the Staffordshire Wildlife Trust hosts a bat walk this weekend.

It takes place at Shoal Hill Common on Saturday, August 2.

Participants should meet at Cocksparrow Lane car park at 9pm.

The free event is being jointly held with the South East Staffs Bat Group.

Homes scheme

PLANS have been lodged with South Staffordshire Council for a new housing development in Huntingdon. If approved the proposals would see 22 houses and bungalows built on land at Gravel Lane.

IN MY VIEW

with Mark Andrews

IT LOOKS like the end for the West Midlands' answer to Posh and Becks, with Danielle Lloyd and Jamie O'Hara having reportedly split after claims that the Wolves midfielder had been playing away - well playing at the family home actually - with a blonde he met at a nightclub.

The news will no doubt cause a bit of bewilderment among Wolves fans. Not at the fact that footballers occasionally like to dabble in a bit of extra time, which is hardly big news. But how can a single item of clothing have such a big effect on your performance? After all, he never seemed to be able to score in a Wolves shirt.

A BRIEF recap. Saddam Hussein refused to hand over weapons that did not actually exist, so we invaded his country, and had him sent to the gallows.

Meanwhile, Vladimir Putin supplies his supporters with a giant missile launcher which is used to shoot down a passenger jet, claiming 10 British lives. And the response? We suggest he is not a fit person to host the World Cup. The bigger they come, the harder they fall? Yeah, right.

JUST when you thought our politicians couldn't get any more ridiculous, it emerges Ed Miliband has been taking advice from Ali G's brother.

Simon Baron-Cohen, brother of comedian Sacha, has been tasked with sharpening up the Labour leader's image. You know, giving him a bit of gravitas, that kind of thing.

This can only be good news. Who wouldn't love to see the leader of the Opposition turning up to Prime Minister's Questions in a yellow shell suit? Or he could woo the green vote by addressing the house in one of Borat's lime-coloured mankinds. Maybe draw the line at suggesting he could support Walsall's leather industry by wearing a pair of hide-bound Bruno's shorts, but who knows, it could catch on.

Respect, man. Total respect.

APPARENTLY, this country is now so skint that there are 300,000 people in this country who cannot afford to go bankrupt. I must say, I was a little surprised until I read it cost a whopping £700 to file a bankruptcy order. Wha-a-at? How does that work? Surely if you have £700 knocking about, you are not actually bankrupt in the first place?

ABOUT the debate of whether libraries should remove sex offender Rolf Harris's books and CDs from their shelves. Some say they might offend people who see them, others say they shouldn't censor what people read or listen to. I simply say: what is the point?

If anybody fancies going down to their local library and asking for Two Little Boys from the record collection, then they are a braver man than me.

Farewell Tommy, king of the loffs

Mark Andrews takes an affectionate look back at the life of Black Country entertainer Tommy Mundon

THE irony was not lost on Tommy Mundon when he was forced to retire after being diagnosed with Parkinson's disease.

"I'm now a stand-up comedian who can't stand up for long," he said. And after a five-year battle with the illnesses, the king of Black Country comedy recently died, four months after celebrating his 80th birthday.

His act was a throwback to another age, littered with colourful anecdotes about close-knit communities and pigs in the back yard. He evoked images of the simple joys of life, of happiness in times of adversity.

Legend

Ken Dodd, a close friend of Tommy's for more than 20 years, paid tribute to the man who spent more than half a century making the Black Country laugh.

Dodd, who last saw Tommy last year, spoke of his sadness at the passing of the Black Country comedy legend. "I am extremely saddened to hear the news," he said. "He was a wonderful friend and a wonderful comedian. And he was more than a comedian, he was a humorist, he knew all the Black Country stories."

"I admired him hugely. I had known Tommy for a long time and he became a very good friend, and he was a great personality."

Friend Alan Smith, known under his stage name Aynuk, had appeared with him on stage numerous times over the past 50 years. The 76-year-old from Netherton, Dudley, recalled Tommy's pride in the Black Country. "Tommy was a proper Black Countryman," he said. "He was a familiar face. He could not go anywhere without being recognised. He was an ambassador for the Black Country."

A youthful-looking Tommy seen in his on-stage outfit here in April, 1977

A lifelong resident of Halesowen - he was a pupil of the County Modern Boys' School, now Windsor High School - Tommy was a born showman. "I've always been the clown - right from school," he said. He recalled putting on his first show at the age of four or five when he was growing up in the town's suaded me to have a go on my own, and he wrote me a sketch, and before you knew it I was doing clubs and Rotary dinners." One thing he could not do was stick to his script.

"Right from the start I was ad-libbing a lot," he said. "I was probably 14 or 15 on my first show. It went very well though. In those days, folks would laugh at anything."

In the early 1970s he joined the Black Country Night Out show, performing with popular Black Country comics Dolly Allen and Doug Parker, poet Harry Harrison and folk singer Jon Raven.

But at this time he was better known as part of the MWM light entertainment troupe, which saw team up with Opportunity Knocks winners Tony and Keith West, and singer Linda Marsh.

Canada

By the late 70s his act was going global, with several of his tapes being sold to Black Country expats living abroad. In 1979 the Black Country Night Out show went on tour in Canada, but Tommy was not part of it due to his job as a lorry driver for Dudley Council.

"I was the only one who had a day job," he recalled. "They told me I could take a month's holiday from work, but I wouldn't get paid."

The highlight of his career came when he performed in front of a packed Symphony Hall in Birmingham a few years ago. "It holds around 2,000 people, and I remember walking out onto the stage."

"If you can get a few laughs at the beginning, it builds your confidence, and when 2,000 people started laughing it was wonderful."

Tommy continued to be in huge demand right up until the moment he was forced to end his showbusiness career in 2012. His act was rooted in a rose-tinted image of a Black Country which never existed, and the audiences couldn't get enough of it. With his passing, another link to the Black Country of old, is lost forever. We shall not see his like again.

WEEK IN POLITICS

with Daniel Wainwright

"A GOVERNMENT, which robs Peter to pay Paul can always depend on the support of Paul."

So said George Bernard Shaw. And now we're starting to see that in action with council tax benefit.

The benefit was scrapped last year because ministers said the welfare bill had doubled under Labour. Local authorities were left to their own devices in how to deal with people who had previously been getting their council tax bills paid for them.

They were given the option of either cutting the benefit, scrapping discounts for people with second homes and empty properties or plugging the gap by using their own limited funds.

But they could not cut benefits for pensioners or change the 25 per cent discount for single adult households.

Wolverhampton City Council's plan has been amended this week as it continues to grapple with £123 million of cuts and the prospect of 2,000 job losses.

Around 18,500 households with working-age adults are now set to see their council tax bills soar by 83 per cent.

That sounds enormous, but it's worth bearing in mind they weren't paying that much in the first place.

Since the changes came into effect last year a family on benefits in a Band A house was paying about £120 a year.

That's going to go up to £220.

It might not seem like much for the year, but if you're in a household that needs benefits to get by, £220 is massive.

Either way, this can only be a temporary solution. Even in cold, purely statistical terms, taxpayers will end up paying somehow, either for the benefits or through reduced council services.

The best way to cut the benefits bill is to cut the number of people who have to rely on benefits.

That means lots of private sector jobs, paid at a wage people can live off without needing support while also paying tax and filled by a workforce skilled in the trades employers want.

The UKIP problem for the Tories is not going away. And despite what UKIP would like to think about its appeal to working class voters, it is the Conservatives it is hitting the hardest, to Labour's benefit.

Take the latest polling by Tory peer Lord Ashcroft, who helped bankroll much of the campaigning in marginal seats in 2010.

His survey shows Labour are on course to regain Wolverhampton South West next year.

Yet UKIP is the biggest beneficiary in terms of the swing from other parties, taking 11 per cent more votes than in 2010 from the sample reported.

Labour has increased its support by seven per cent. But if that result moves from the poll to the ballot box, that's all it's going to need. A win's a win.

Oh, sister! Twins take jobs at same hospital

PATIENTS may think they are seeing double when twin sisters start working at the same hospital as doctors.

Yasmine and Sasha Darwazeh, from Rugeley, will both be working at the University Hospital Coventry.

Yasmine will be graduating as a junior doctor in July, one year after her sister Sasha graduated from the same course at Warwick Medical School.

Sasha already works as a junior doctor at University Hospital Coventry and her sister will also take up a position there in August.

The 26-year-olds, both dreamed of becoming doctors but decided initially to follow different interests. Yasmine applied for the Warwick Teach First, which led to a job teaching science for two years.

Watch

In contrast, Sasha became a sensory scientist at Cadburys for a year and later applied for Medical School starting in 2009.

Yasmine said: "We have already studied a degree in medical biochemistry together so we've studied side by side and apart and it's been great to be able to turn to Sasha for help if I have needed to."

"I have had not only the support of my sister, but someone who understands what has been expected from me in order to be successful on this course. Now my sister gets to watch me graduate from the same university and that really is the icing on the cake."

Yasmine will be working in the gastroenterology department and Sasha will continue her work in paediatrics.

Sasha said: "With Yasmine working in the same hospital as me I am sure we will end up seeing much more of each other again."

Yasmine added: "We could end up with some of the same work friends too which is nice."

The pair now live together.

Yasmine said she was inspired to apply for the course after her sister 'loved it', she said.

And she chose Warwick as she wanted to be closer to her sister, who has helped and supported her through the course.

They are the first in their family to pursue a career in medicine.

8 Shocked at decision on alarms

The Chronicle Thursday, July 31, 2014

MANY local residents in sheltered accommodation and council dwellings will have been shocked to receive a letter concerning the future provision of Social Alarms within the district.

For years, approximately 2,500 vulnerable tenants have been able to call for help at any time by contacting a local call centre.

Most of the funding has been provided by the county council, but at very short notice and without any consultation it has decided to withdraw its contribution.

Cannock Chase Council is determined to do all it can to overcome this. We have plans to continue provision in sheltered accommodation and will also continue to provide alarms for those who fulfil certain criteria.

We are also looking to provide more modern alarms which will be cheaper to maintain and seeking partners for this provision and for running the service.

Not willing to look after taxpayers

I WAS disappointed that Councillor Mark Winnington tabled a motion for Staffordshire County Council to vote against joining 51M, a group of local authorities against the HS2 project.

I listened with interest when Councillor Winnington said he was worried about his council having to pick up costs associated with 51M, even though earlier in the week I had presented SCC with a letter from Martin Tett, leader of Buckinghamshire County Council and chairman of 51M stating that there were no costs involved for joining and at the same time SCC would not be liable for the costs of any case that had previously been heard and ruled upon.

I myself pointed out that 51M had the strength of numbers that added power to the punch when petitioning Parliament and participating in discussions with them regarding the HS2 project. The only councillor that seemed to understand that strength in numbers count was Derek Huckfield (Ukip). Councillor Frank Chapman, who as a borough councillor, had voted to join 51M now voted against SCC joining as did a Lichfield District Councillor who had done the same.

Councillor Winnington and his council colleagues seem to have admitted defeat in accepting HS2 will happen. It would seem that SCC are happy to spend money sending a team of county council bosses on a jolly to Russia but not as willing to look after their own taxpayers.

R GASCH, Stafford

The best candidate for Chase

IN response to Ukip candidate Grahame Wiggan on the selection of the Conservative Parliamentary Candidate for Cannock Chase.

The 35 names were reduced to 10, the top four of whom were all women. The three chosen for interview were considered the best possible candidates to represent Cannock Chase – not due to their gender. The selection committee were all members of Cannock Chase Conservative Association.

Cannock Chase people selected a Staffordshire born female candidate as we believe she is the right person to fight the seat and be our next member of Parliament.

Both Janos Janos Toth and Grahame Wiggan have questioned the choice. Why?

Are they misogynists? Or genuinely running scared of being beaten by a locally born woman who will give voters a greater choice?

Designer outlet's impact 'crippling'

I FIND it incomprehensible that the local council is backing the proposals for the designer outlet at Mill Green. They have been trying to unload this piece of land for 20 years or more and are hell bent on not losing this opportunity at any cost.

The impact on wellbeing and logistics in the area will be crippling. The council hopes the usual 'jobs created' banner will sweep all other protests aside.

The public consultation appeared to be more akin to being sold unwanted timeshare. One especially condescending woman presumed us poor folk in Cannock needed the children's story book approach to what constitutes a designer outlet.

Burntwood turned down a similar development once reality settled in and people understood the detrimental long-term effect it would have. I hope for once sanity prevails and the local planners also reject the application.

P KEELING, Cannock

Suffering from cuts

A TORY county councillor appeared on local TV and said that in his opinion the majority of people in Staffordshire had not noticed the cuts they had made.

Tell that to my daughter who drove into a 10-inch deep pot-hole, punctured her tyre and was fobbed off with the excuse that it had only been reported two days before so they had no time to repair it.

Tell it to the pensioners who have had day centres closed and funding for their Social Alarm System taken away. Tell it to all those in Staffordshire who have suffered because of the cuts.

All this to save the rich paying higher taxes. We all need to pay more for the services that we demand in our society.

Deal paves way for scheme to go ahead

Councillor Gordon Alcott, Mike Timmins, from St Modwen, and Brian Egerton, from agents Hawksmoor

DEVELOPERS St Modwen have signed an agreement with landowners, paving the way for a multi-million pound housing scheme in Hednesford to go ahead.

The 142-acre development will allow for up to 700 homes of between one and five bedrooms – including affordable housing – on land to the west of Pye Green Road owned by JS Holford & Sons.

It will also feature 75 acres of public open space, with shops and amenities at its heart. St Modwen has been working with Cannock Chase Council since 2012 on a Section 106 agreement – a package of financial contributions and infrastructure improvements to help enhance the local area.

The agreement includes provision for an on-site primary school and £2.6 million education contributions.

Network

In addition, more than half the site will be dedicated to open space, while highway works of more than £2m will enable a roundabout to be built on the A34 Stafford Road, together with new and improved junctions on Pye Green Road and Limepit Lane and a network of pedestrian crossings and cycle paths. Mike Timmins, senior planning surveyor at St Modwen, said: "We are very pleased to reach this major milestone in our plans for the Pye Green site."

"It means we can now start building the development that will breathe new life into Hednesford. More than 1,000 jobs are also set to be generated by the construction of the houses and the local centre."

Councillor Gordon Alcott, for economic development and planning, said: "This housing scheme will bring significant levels of inward investment to Cannock Chase as well as social and environmental benefits. Up to 14 per cent of the first phase of 219 homes will be affordable."

Cloudy2Clear Windows - Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Brian Stanley feels that it's all about service. "Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done.

We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole."

Cloudy2Clear service Wolverhampton and the surrounding area and Brian is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. "The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people

I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated."

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Brian a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Parents help out at nursery's open day

Lucy Naylor helps out at the open day with son Jack

PARENTS of children at a Cannock nursery helped out at an open day, passing on their experiences to other mums and dads.

They were on hand at Happy Tots in Bridgtown to help other parents decide on the best place for their child to go.

The summer fun themed day at the Orbital Plaza nursery was held so prospective parents could take a look at the facilities on offer.

While parents found out more about the nursery, their children had fun with activities including sand and water play, decorating biscuits, hook-a-duck and painting summer pictures.

Lucy Naylor, whose son Jack attends Happy Tots, was one of those helping out. She said: "I was happy to help, as we would have found it really useful to be able chat with existing parents when we were looking for a nursery."

"All parents naturally worry about leaving their little one somewhere when going back to work - we did with Jack - so it was nice that I could reassure them by answering some of their questions."

Anyone who missed the open day can still visit the nursery and find out more about current offers. Visit www.happy-tots.com or call 01543 509089 for more details.

New HS2 director will earn £400,000

ANOTHER new director has joined the company behind the controversial high-speed rail link HS2 - on a salary nearly three times what the Prime Minister earns.

Alistair Kirk has been appointed as programme and strategy director of HS2 Ltd and will earn £400,000 a year. Weeks earlier, the project chairman said he planned to hire 20-30 executives paid more than David Cameron.

Mr Kirk joins from EC Harris, which is part of ARCADIS, one of the leading global transportation consultancies, where he led its infrastructure business in the Middle East.

HS2 Ltd chief executive Simon Kirby, who earns £750,000 a year, said: "Alistair joins us at an important time for HS2, as we continue the progress from development to delivery."

Pivotal

"Alistair has an excellent track record across the defence and rail sectors."

Mr Kirk said: "I'm delighted to be joining Simon and the HS2 team at an exciting and pivotal point on the programme."

Sir David Higgins, chairman of the £50bn rail project, said it would be wrong to 'skimp' on employing workers for the scheme which will eat up 45 miles of Staffordshire countryside.

Sir David, who is paid £597,000, said it was 'absolutely essential' to pay more to get the right people for the jobs.

"The worst money you can save is skipping on hiring the best people," he said, adding that staff would be held accountable for their performance and 'if they don't perform they'll go'.

"They won't be on long-term government pensions or long-term tenure," he said.

Cheers to Stephen as beer mats launched

Ian Rawlins, from Burntwood, Stephen's mother Jane Sutton and Stephen's friend Lee Woodward with the mats

STEPHEN Sutton's smile has been immortalised in print – on 400 beer mats.

The quirky mats, which can be hung off the nose, are being distributed around the 19-year-old's home town in Burntwood. Stephen himself thought up the idea with his friend Lee Woodward. They are sponsored by Rawlins Tyres in Lichfield Street, Burntwood.

Mr Woodward, 38, and company owner Ian Rawlins launched the beer mats with Stephen's mum Jane.

She said: "I think they are great and it does not surprise me Stephen came up with something like this. Anything that continues raising the profile of the Teenage Cancer Trust is really positive."

Mr Woodward, who works at Gestamp Tallent in Cannock, said: "We were messing around when Stephen drew his own face and that sparked the idea."

"This is a platform to spread Stephen's story. He was the best at smiling and really put things into perspective – it is a really powerful message we can all follow."

"He was incredible and we went on an adventure together."

Immortalised – Stephen's smile

President hopes for a fun year

Lichfield Rotary Club

DAVID Kershaw has been inducted as the club's new president, taking over from Christopher Spruce. David Mayes has been promoted to 1st vice president (president-elect), with Trevor James as 2nd vice president.

John Cole has agreed to continue his excellent work on membership recruitment.

Following the official handover, Mr Kershaw said he was looking forward to another year of fun and fellowship and to raising funds for both international and local charities.

He said Fellowship was improving all the time and he hoped to develop good relationships with Lichfield St Chad Club, its mother club Walsall and other clubs locally.

A number of Rotarians helped fill the Church of the Holy Angels at Hoar Cross when Canon Roger Williams celebrated his 50 years as a priest.

Father Paul Locket, parish priest of Hempton and Pudding Norton, and Guild of All Souls Chantry Priest at the Shrine of Our Lady at Walsingham, gave the sermon, which incorporated a personal message of congratulations to Roger and best wishes to the congregation from the Duchess of Cornwall.

On June 13 and 14, Ian James organised a collection for ShelterBox which raised £205.31. Ian is very grateful to all collectors, especially those who covered more than one slot and to Ray Hassall who helped on loan from Bownhills Club.

Club is aiming to strengthen its pride

Cannock Lions Club

Old and new presidents Mark Wyton and Beverley Stanyer

CANNOCK Lions ended their year celebrating their successes of the past 12 months and inducted their new president, Beverley Stanyer.

She said: "This year's motto is 'Strengthen the Pride' which I know Cannock Lions will do and I am very proud to be their president."

Past president Mark Wyton thanked the club for its support throughout his year.

The club is going from strength to strength and has made donations to Katharine House Hospice, Tiddlywinks Pre-school, Chase Scout Warriors, Young Carers' spring fling and Cannock & District food bank to name a few.

The Schools in Harmony concert was the best yet and the Burns Night supper and race night were sell-outs. For the first time the club had a Santa's Grotto in the Indoor Market. The Ladies' Night for Stafford Hospital breast cancer patients was also a great event.

The Hednesford branch is roaring and finding its paws, an excellent tea party at the Aquarius its first big event.

Guild stall is best dressed

Great Wyrley TG

THE July meeting was opened by chairman Bette Webb with a with an appropriate poem called Holiday Time.

The guild won Best Dressed Stall at Great Wyrley Carnival. The theme was history and members dressed up as suffragettes.

Gavin Williamson MP presented the trophy. After refreshments the speaker Gary Smith, chairman of Great Wyrley Historical Society, brought members up to date with the current plans for Landywood Farm.

The original building dates from 1530 and has been bought by a local businessman, who intends to restore the Grade II listed building. He invited Gary to visit the farm and more than 4,000 artefacts were rescued from the buildings. Gary had brought some of them with him along with old and new photographs of the farm.

Ironman becomes the Hawaiian man

Dean Edwards has now qualified for the world Ironman finals later this year in Hawaii

A FATHER has made it to the world Ironman championships in Hawaii after taking on 2,000 competitors at a UK event. Dean Edwards took on Ironman UK in Bolton.

The course featured a 2.4-mile swim, 112-mile bike ride and 26.2-mile run and he finished in 10 hours and three minutes to finish 23rd overall and second in his age group.

The 26-year-old father-of-one, of Sharnhall is manager at family-run firm The Engraving Company, in Cannock, which has pledged to sponsor him for the Hawaii trip but he is looking for other sponsors. Call him on 01543 468836.

Fundraising head shave

TWO women aim to raise £1,000 by having their hair shaved. Kayleigh Schaefer and Alex Dakin will face the chop at Cannock Cricket and Hockey Club on August 17. The proceeds will be donated to Cancer Research. Other activities will include a football match at 10am.

Work will mean vital habitat is protected

WORKMEN will be out in force to tackle wild-life-threatening plants on Cannock Chase.

Teams of contractors will be out spraying bracken over the next few weeks on well-signposted areas of the Chase to help protect heather and other wildlife habitats.

The operation has been given the all clear by the Government's nature conservation adviser, Natural England. Teams will use a safe spray that is completely harmless to animals, birds, humans and other plants.

Managed by Staffordshire County Council, Cannock Chase Country Park's heathland landscape makes it a top UK and European wildlife haven.

Reptiles

The bracken control helps protect the heathland that is so important for some of the rarest wildlife, including birds such as the nightjar and woodlark, reptiles, and a variety of insects, including green hairstreak butterflies and solitary bees.

The teams will carry out the spraying on foot, or using small, all-terrain vehicles. It needs to be done in fine, dry weather. The herbicide used for bracken control has been used safely for more than 30 years without detriment to animal and human safety.

County Councillor Gill Heath said: "This key work helps our vitally important wildlife habitats."

"Over the past decade a lot of hard work has gone into the operation and its continuing success means it is a key part of our work."

"We thank the public in advance for their understanding while this essential work to protect the Chase and its rare wildlife is happening."

Walkers follow in Tolkien's footsteps

Walkers enjoy the first of three guided walks exploring Tolkien's links with Staffordshire during the Great War

LIBRARY staff say they are delighted with the turnout for the first of three guided walks to celebrate JRR Tolkien's links with Staffordshire during the Great War years.

Fifteen walkers joined volunteer guides and Penkridge Library staff to enjoy the trail across the countryside - following in the footsteps of the author, who was stationed on Cannock Chase during the First World War.

The 12-mile walk began at the library, in Bell Brook, taking in Cannock Chase, via Park Gate Bridge and Gipsy Green, on the Teddesley Park estate, where Tolkien lived.

The trail comprises three linked walks, covering over 30 miles in all, exploring Tolkien's Staffordshire connection.

Councillor Mike Lawrence said: "It's clear that Staffordshire had a profound effect on this famous author's formative years, and we're right to feel proud of those links."

The next Tolkien Trail guided walk is 13.5 miles across Cannock Chase on September 18. Cost is £2 and bookings are being taken. Meet at Brocton Coppice car park at 9.30am. Call 01785 712916 or visit www.staffordshiregreat-war.com/events and search for Tolkien.

MP in parking campaign

AN MP has launched a campaign to tackle parking problems outside a Cheslyn Hay Primary School.

Conservative MP for South Staffordshire Gavin Williamson says the problems are so bad that roads are becoming gridlocked at peak times.

He says the parking system is 'clearly not working' and is calling for action. He says a dedicated drop-off zone for cars could be created, or even extra parking spaces added.

Mr Williamson met with the Saredon Road school last week to discuss the problems that parents experience when dropping off and picking their children up. The MP agreed to contact the district and county councils to request that action be taken.

He said: "These problems have been ongoing for very long time. The current system is clearly not working.

Thought needs to be put into what action can be taken to make this school access fit for purpose."

County council transport member Mark Deaville said: "We have introduced single and double yellow lines, 'keep clear' markings and included the site in our '20 is Plenty' programme.

"We are working closely with families, the school and the MP and are helping advise the school on road safety issues."

Slimmer has a ball with sports presenter

AN Aston Villa fan has been praised by a sports reporter on reaching his weight loss goal.

Darren Ball was congratulated by Sky Sports presenter Charlie Webster on tackling his weight issues at a national slimming competition.

The 33-year-old, of Heath Hayes, lost 7st 11.5lbs and was one of 36 entrants from across the UK and Ireland to win a place in the finals of Slimming World's Man of the Year.

Darren tipped the scales at 18st 11.5lbs before joining his local Slimming World group in June 2013. He now weighs in at 11st.

He said: "I was quite worried about telling people I was going to Slimming World. When men want to lose weight they usually start talking about exercising more or watching what they're eating, rather than joining a group.

Impressed

"But I needn't have felt that way because when my friends and family saw how much weight I was losing they were really impressed and they've been extremely supportive.

"It's been the same at the group. When I first walked through the doors I was worried that, as a man, I'd be the 'odd one out'.

"It was nothing like that though, everyone was very friendly and made a big effort to make me feel welcome. Everyone in that room is there for the same reason - because we want to lose weight, become healthier and feel better about ourselves."

He added: "I was pleased when I found out I'd made the finals of Slimming World's Man of the Year competition, but I didn't lose weight to win

Darren meets Charlie Webster

Darren Ball before his weight loss

a competition. I used to feel like I was living life on the sidelines and now I feel happier, healthier and I can do more with my friends and family."

Charlie, who recently completed the challenge of running more than a marathon a day between 40 football clubs to raise money for a domestic violence charity, said: "What Darren has achieved is as inspiring as any sportsperson I've met and he should be so proud of the way in which he's transformed himself - and his whole life for that matter."

Gill Fletcher, who runs the Bridg-town group which Darren attends, said: "Darren is almost unrecognisable from the man who walked into my group all those months ago but it's been quite a gradual change."

"He's shown that making small changes to the way you eat and becoming more active bit by bit can make a huge difference."

Classes run every Wednesday at 5.30pm at Bethel Methodist Church, Union Street.

For details, call Gill on 07958 000554, visit www.slimmingworld.com or simply pop along.

Unison against care changes

A UNION has launched a fight against plans for cancer and end-of-life care in Staffordshire to be managed by private companies in deals worth £1.2 billion.

Health chiefs have teamed up with experts from Macmillan Cancer Support to overhaul the way services are managed with 10-year contracts worth £689 million and £535 million up for grabs.

Virgin, Care UK, Ramsay Health and other private firms are said to be interested in bidding for the contracts.

Bosses at the Clinical Commissioning Groups say the aim is to make managing cancer and end-of-life services simpler. But Unison is calling for the plans to be halted.

West Midlands regional organiser Ray Salmon said: "We are seeking a review of cancer services and a partnership approach taken by all NHS trusts in Staffordshire regarding future service provision."

"We are seeking a commitment to future services which does not amount to a gamble with some of the most vulnerable patients."

MP is demanding answers over loss of hospital beds

AN MP has written to the Health Secretary demanding answers over plans to cut nearly a third of beds at Stafford Hospital.

Stafford MP Jeremy Lefroy said services will be put under 'considerable strain' and has also raised fears that downgrading of the hospital's maternity unit will go ahead before a promised review has even taken place.

Sixty of around 200 beds from across the hospital will no longer be in use, in a move which could potentially have an adverse effect on surrounding hospitals.

It is believed the issue is down to staffing problems at the Weston Road site and follows the claim from Clinical Commissioning Group boss Andrew Donald that no staff wanted to work there. New Cross Hospital in Wolverhampton and Manor Hospital in Walsall will have extra patients arrive as a result.

By Adam Burling

Ambulances will also be redirected to those two hospitals as well as to the University Hospital of North Staffordshire NHS.

The letter from Conservative MP Mr Lefroy asks: "Are these bed closures temporary or permanent?" and adds: "How many staff would need to be recruited to reopen them and what efforts are being made to do so?"

He also asks: "We are told that some ambulances which would normally take people to Stafford will be diverted elsewhere. The West Midlands Ambulance Service is already under considerable strain. What is being done to ensure that they have the vehicles and staff to carry out the additional work?"

Stafford could still retain consultant-led maternity services after it was agreed for NHS England to carry out the review, rather than downgrading the unit to a midwife-led facility.

A review of the maternity unit will not start until the trust has been dissolved in November.

But Mr Lefroy said patients were worried that the downgrade would go ahead regardless.

Maggie Oldham, chief executive at Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust, said the trust's first consideration was ensuring the safe treatment of patients.

She said: "This is why we are working with Stafford & Surrounds Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG), neighbouring trusts and the West Midlands Ambulance Service on a temporary solution."

Road scheme to cause disruption

DRIVERS face delays and disruptions as a busy interchange is closed overnight for a major revamp.

The £2.9 million project to realign lanes and add traffic lights at the Churchbridge junction began last week. The work incorporates three roundabouts connecting the A5, M6 Toll, A460 Cannock Eastern Bypass and the A34.

Highways bosses insist the majority of works will be carried out overnight. The scheme is expected to finish in December.

Alastair Warnes, project manager for the scheme, said: "This £2.9million scheme will tackle traffic congestion at this busy roundabout as well as improve road safety for road users."

The work is part of a national £317 million 'pinch point' improvement programme.

Campaigners have been calling for the junction to be revamped for years, with South Staffordshire MP Gavin Williamson criticising it for being 'badly designed' and 'causing gridlock at peak times'.

He met Transport Secretary Patrick McLoughlin last year to push for funding.

Pip's a silver shooter

Champion archer Pip Taylor, aged 17, from Chase Grammar School

AN archer shot to success in the European Junior Cup, coming home with a silver medal.

Chase Grammar School pupil Pip Taylor was representing Great Britain in Moscow and picked up a team medal, along with her two team-mates. They competed against six other teams, beating Mexico and Italy, but lost to Russia in the final. The 17-year-old, from Essington, trains with Lichfield Archers and competed in trials at the Lilleshall National Sports Centre in Shropshire ahead of being selected.

Pip, who started archery when she was 12 and has been selected to shoot for England on seven previous occasions and has also been chosen to represent Great Britain at the international archery festival in Korea next month.

HOUSEHOLDS on estates plagued with parking problems will be able to create new drive-ways under a £100,000 grant scheme.

Cannock Chase Council will give grants to tenants who want to lower the kerbs outside their properties to create off-street parking.

The scheme is only open to those in council houses who would have to pay for some of the work. The average cost of creating a dropped kerb is estimated to be £650, meaning the £100,000 pot would allow 150 dropped kerbs to be provided.

The scheme has been given the green light by councillors on Cannock Chase Council.

A report states: "Car parking problems are an issue on a number of the council's housing estates."

Anticipated

"Many were built at a time when current levels of car ownership, particularly amongst council tenants, were not anticipated and as a result, only limited car parking facilities were provided."

"Works to address problems on certain estates through communal parking is being undertaken but in some areas the issues can only be resolved through the provision of individual parking spaces within the dwelling curtilage."

It adds: "Whilst the proposed scheme necessitates tenants incurring expense, it is not considered that this is unreasonable when compared to the costs of running a vehicle."

"In addition, parking the vehicle within the curtilage of the dwelling provides additional security and in some cases may result in reduced car insurance premiums."

Bridge work causes delays

MOTORISTS are warned of delays as the county council carries out an £80,000 bridge refurbishment project along Burntwood Road, Norton Canes. It is expected to take 12 weeks to complete. Access to properties and businesses will be maintained.

Grease is the word for stage hopefuls

Cast members Megan Carter, aged 16, Jamie Carter, 15, Emily Watton, 14, and Jodie Atkins, 16

A SUMMER holiday workshop will go like Grease Lighting for young performers. Great Wyrley-based Theatre First have organised the workshop which will end with a production of the classic musical.

The group says it needs to double the cast numbers currently signed up for the project being run over the school break. They hope to attract a West End actor to lead a session for the seven-to-21-year-olds who already attend.

Preparations are under way at the Forest Art Centre, in Leamore, Walsall, where the sessions are being run this year from August 18 to 30 from 9am to 3.30pm except on bank holiday Monday.

Theatre First director Ellen Mills says: "We are working with quite a wide age range of young people. We have already completed the main casting, but the show requires a lot more for the ensemble.

The two-week workshop costs £120 and a £60 deposit will be required to secure a place. To book, contact 07971 378425 or via email theatrefirst@gmail.com

At the end of the project the cast will showcase their efforts at three performances at the arts centre in Hawbush Road. Tickets are £8, £6 concessions. Call 0845 111 2898.

Councils' overseas trips are defended

CASH-STRAPPED councils sent their staff on trips abroad while slashing funding for public services. Authorities defended the visits saying they helped attract investment.

And they say the total cost to the council taxpayer was reduced as most got their expenses funded by hosts or other public bodies.

Out of 10 councils asked under Freedom of Information, the total cost after re-imbursement was more than £47,000 since 2011. Four did not incur any costs at all and two authorities, Sandwell and Walsall, failed to disclose the information.

By Dan Wainwright

fact finding opportunity for both parties.

"For the very modest cost of £3,500 the recent trip built on and strengthened our relationship with the Ivanovo region."

The council also sent two officers to Vienna for a road safety conference at a cost of more than £900. The cost was met out of fines paid by speeding drivers.

Cannock Chase Council has been to Germany once a year to visit the twin town Datteln. The then chairman John Beddows' trip in 2011 cost £174.26, but the 2013 trip by Doris Grice, her consort and the chief executive cost £970.95.

Skaters are first class

A FIGURE skater from Penkridge graduated from Staffordshire University with First Class honours. Darcy-Adele Lloyd attained a BA (Hons) in Sport Development and Coaching. The ceremony was held at Trentham Gardens.

Colleague Natasha Engleby graduated with a First Class BSc (Hons) in Sport Therapy. Both have skated since they were children and are high level performers. Darcy-Adele has taken part in the British Championships and internationally whilst Natasha is a former Disney on Ice performer. Both are qualified figure skating coaches.

Treasurer to pay back all £7,000 she stole

A PARCEL firm treasurer who pocketed thousands of pounds destined for a work fund has been spared jail – but must repay the full amount she stole.

Sarah Jane Spearman had worked for TNT Express for a decade and was the social club treasurer at the company's depot in Cannock when she took money, amounting to around £7,000.

The money had been donated to the Help For Heroes charity and towards the staff Christmas party.

Mr John Peel, prosecuting at Cannock magistrates court, said the 34-year-old married mother, who had financial problems, kept the money raised by the depot for good causes.

She also failed to pay the bill for a Blackpool coach trip for staff and made out cheques to herself.

Failed

The court heard the cash had been stolen over a period of 18 months and it only came to light after colleagues checked the social fund's bank account.

The court heard Spearman, of Dove Hollow, Hednesford, was also responsible for helping to empty a vending machine, but had failed to pay the sums into the bank account.

Rent and tax payments for the vending machine had not been paid because of insufficient funds and the firm had to foot the bill.

The company's security manager Mary-Ann Burke told the court that before the crime came to light staff had 'total trust' in her abilities and people had been left feeling cheated and angry.

Spearman, who was dismissed following an investigation, admitted theft by employee between October 2012 and February 2014.

The court heard the defendant said she had not planned to steal the cash but things had 'spiralled out of control very quickly' and she thought she would be able to pay the money back.

Spearman said she had struggled financially and had spent the money on every day living costs.

Mr Paul Jenkins, mitigating, said Spearman had been regarded as trustworthy and had made full admissions.

Spearman was handed a 12-week prison sentence, suspended by 12 months, with a 12-month supervision requirement. She was also ordered to carry out 200 hours unpaid work and pay £7,000 in compensation to the firm, alongside £85 costs and £80 victim surcharge.

Drink-driver who reversed along M6 Toll banned

A DRINK-driver reversed along the M6 Toll for more than a mile after getting lost and panicking with little cash.

Peter Harrison was stopped by police as he drove backwards up the slip road to the Norton Canes services, Cannock magistrates were told.

The 46-year-old, of Avon Crescent, Pelsall, had reached a toll plaza but then reversed his Vauxhall Corsa along the hard shoulder.

A breath-test revealed 82 microgrammes of alcohol in 100 millilitres of breath – more than twice the legal drink-drive limit of 35. Mr John Peel, prosecuting, said

Harrison told police that he had only consumed one-and-a-half pints on that evening, and had lost his way home.

Harrison admitted driving dangerously and when above the drink-drive limit. He was given a 12-month community order, 200 hours unpaid work and disqualified from driving for 14 months. He was also given a driving ban for 21 months for driving with excess alcohol, to run concurrently, fined £315 and ordered to pay costs of £85 and £60 victim surcharge.

Mr Brij Chaudhry, defending, said he had been on the hard shoulder and no injury was caused.

Brownies' centenary

MORE than 80 girls gathered for a birthday beach bash to mark 100 years of the Brownie movement. Great Wyrley District Rainbows, Brownies, Guides and the Senior Section donned beachwear to mark the occasion.

They made beach themed crafts, had a bouncy castle, enjoyed ice cream and rock and finished the with a campfire. District Commissioner Karen Andrew said: "We also marked the 100 year WWI commemorations by siting a planter along with plaque outside the Guide centre and planting red, white and blue plants inside."

Police boss leaves for new Home Office role

THE boss of Staffordshire Police is to leave the force after being given a new senior role with the Home Office.

Chief Constable Mike Cunningham has been appointed as Her Majesty's Inspector of Constabulary following a rigorous recruitment process which included approval by The Queen and Prime Minister and the Queen.

He will succeed Roger Baker, who has been HM Inspector of Constabulary since September 2009, and will be one of four people to hold the post.

Mr Cunningham spent the earlier part of his career at Lancashire Constabulary, which he joined in 1987, culminating in his appointment as Deputy Chief Constable in 2007.

Before joining the police he was a teacher for two years. He was appointed as Chief Constable of Staffordshire Police in September 2009.

Mike Cunningham

Proud

Mr Cunningham said: "I am honoured to have been appointed as Her Majesty's Inspector of Constabulary. I am looking forward to a new challenging and exciting role."

"I leave Staffordshire Police very proud of the men and women who keep people safe and reassured and I thank them for their outstanding work."

Home Secretary Theresa May said: "I am delighted to confirm Mike Cunningham as Her Majesty's Inspector of Constabulary."

The appointment is initially for five years at an annual salary of up to £185,971.

The job centres around inspecting and monitoring the 43 police forces in England and Wales. Deputy chief constable Jane Sawyers is taking up the role of interim chief constable at Staffordshire while a new recruitment process takes place.

Staffordshire Police & Crime Commissioner Mathew Ellis will have the job of appointing a new permanent chief.

Mr Ellis said: "Mike Cunningham is an excellent Chief Constable and I've thoroughly enjoyed working so closely with him during the last 18 months."

"I wish Mike and his family every success with their new future."

HM Chief Inspector of Constabulary Thomas Winsor said: "I look forward to Mike joining the Inspectorate as one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Constabulary, and to working with him."

Drama tutor in football match fundraising bid

A DRAMA school owner has organised a charity football match to raise £3,000 for the Teenage Cancer Trust.

Graham Tudor, who runs Tread with former Hollywood actress wife Helen, has organised the match in Huntington on August 30 at 3pm.

The couple, inspired by the story of Stephen Sutton, have already raised £500 through their drama school showcases.

Mr Tudor said: "Helen and I were obviously moved by the Stephen Sutton story and have been raising funds from our final Tread showcases in Liverpool, Wigan, Stoke, Cannock and Kendal. However, I recently saw a post from an old school friend of mine whose wife, also a friend of mine, is currently undergoing chemotherapy treatment for breast cancer."

"I contacted him and we decided to set up a match between my team and his for the Teenage Cancer Trust."

"The game will be played in Huntington and there will be a retro-style presentation afterwards at the Littleton Arms."

Each player will pay or raise £50 each to play and there will be a £3 minimum donation per person to watch the game.

Another cryptic graffiti message scrawled on a wall relating to the murder

The infamous wych elm showing where the body was found

Thomas Willetts, who raised the alarm, pictured talking with a neighbour 10 years later

Gestapo agent Josef Jakobs was shot by a firing squad

Steve Punt searched through archives at the Express & Star

Investigating Bella down the Wych Elm

IT WAS late April in 1943, the sun was setting behind the Clent Hills and four teenage boys were foraging around Lord Cobham's estate on a poaching expedition in Hagley Woods.

One of them clambered up a tree, looking for a bird's nest, but what he found would haunt him for the rest of his days. The tree, known as the 'wych elm' due to its sinister appearance, was hollow. As 15-year-old Bob Farmer glanced down, the empty eye sockets of a skull glared back.

Fearful that police might have asked awkward questions about what he was doing up the tree in the first place, after a quick examination of the gruesome find, Bob put the skull back. He and friends Bob Hart, Tom Willetts and Fred Payne, returned to their homes in Wollescote, hoping that would be the end of the matter. Tom, the youngest, found the secret too hard to keep and told his parents.

MEMORY LANE

By Mark Andrews

Police found the skeleton of a young woman inside the hollowed-out tree. Across the fields they found her severed hand.

Graffiti bearing the message 'who put Bella down the Wych Elm' began appearing on walls in the area. But the mystery of who Bella was — let alone who was responsible for her death — has continued to confound both police and amateur sleuths for decades.

It is a riddle which brought comedian Steve Punt to the Express & Star head office in Wolverhampton, as he launched his own investigation into one of Worcestershire's most infamous unsolved crimes for his BBC Radio 4 series Punt PI.

For many years the most popular theory was that 'Bella' had been murdered in some kind of black magic ritual. Then a theory involving Nazi spies gained weight when MI5 published wartime files, which detail the interrogation of Czech-born Gestapo agent Josef Jakobs who was arrested by the Home Guard after parachuting into Cambridgeshire in January 1941. He was found to have been carrying a photograph of the German cabaret singer and movie star Clara Bauerle, who he said was his lover. He told his interrogators that Bauerle had been recruited as a secret agent but claimed she had yet to parachute into England.

Bauerle would have been 35 and had spent two years working music halls of the West Midlands during the late 1930s. She was said to have spoken English with a Midland accent. It hardly takes a great leap of imagination from Clara Bauerle to Clara Bella. Even more intriguingly, she apparently disappeared without trace in 1941. Jakobs was shot by firing squad on August 15, 1941, the last man to be executed at the Tower of London.

The Punt PI programme on Bella in the Wych Elm will be broadcast on BBC Radio 4 at 10.30am on Saturday.

Singer and film star Clara Bauerle — was she Bella in the Wych Elm?

You've heard all about our work and read of our transformations... Problems with your dentures? Don't put it off - Now is the time to act!

New smile New confidence New you

YOU'VE seen the stories, heard of the transformations and had first-hand experience of the catalogue of problems that can occur for denture wearers.

Chances are, you're reading this article because you are not happy with your teeth.

For many of the thousands of patients cared for at the Denture Clinic, their journey to find a solution at the Dudley practice has been a long one.

For some, their research is thorough and they walk through the doors clutching folders full of newspaper cuttings of life-changing dental narratives.

Others arrive out of desperation, having dispatched their prosthetics into the back of a drawer as hopelessly unsuitable.

And there are those who have delayed their decision-making for years, frozen by fear of the dentist or "just waiting for the right time."

Although every case and treatment plan is unique, there is chorus of agreement amongst many of the clinic's patients. According to principal Steven Burchell DipCDT RCS(Eng) GDC108353 they wish they had sought the clinic's special interest expertise earlier.

Come and meet our dentist Polly

As part of improvements for the patient experience at North Street a general dentistry practice works alongside the denture prescribing team.

"This one-stop service has always been the case, but people are still finding out about North Street Dental Clinic," said principal Steven Burchell DipCDT RCS(Eng) GDC108353.

Dental surgeon Polly (GDC No 188090), a Doctor of Dental Medicine with a particular interest in restorative, cosmetic and paediatric fields, looks after the patients. She joined the team in Dudley after working in Michigan at one of America's most prestigious cosmetic dental centres.

A dental plan practice, it offers everything from a simple filling to complex restorative procedures and implant dentistry. Initial consultations are complementary.

North Street Dental Clinic

"We hear it all the time. I wish... I wish... but there's no time like now to get our aesthetically pleasing, functional teeth.

"There are people whose lives have been massively compromised by failing teeth and dentures," he says.

A catalogue of clinical therapies are available, including the popular Suction Solution dentures. Prosthetics are held in place by tiny valve-operated suction devices built into the prescription. A clever diaphragm principle, triggered by bite pressure on patients' gums, creates a 'sucking' vacuum between the soft-tissue mouth lining and the prosthetic.

With more than 30 years' experience, the Denture Clinic, based in North Street, has encountered some heart-rending accounts of how ill-fitting teeth have dislocated lives.

There was the case of a mother who travelled to the Caribbean for her son's dream wedding. Ashamed of her teeth, she didn't have the confidence to be part of the album shoot.

She's due to make a return trip to Runaway Bay and in her words: "Guess who now won't be frightened to have their picture taken?"

Then there was the consummate actress — a lady in her 70s who, for the majority of her life, made excuses not to socially engage, terrified her teeth would fall out. She was able to stop living a lie.

"We had a health professional, an enthusiastic singer, who quite literally found a new song in her life," says Steven.

There was the remarkable case of a patient who had been tormented by crippling trigeminal nerve pain for years. "With the clever use of implant denture fixing points she is now totally free from pain," he adds.

"There are so many cases where our clinical intervention has had a hugely beneficial lifestyle impact. There was a larger-than-life couple — the husband had not a single tooth in his head — that came for help. We were able to craft some high-quality dentures and within days he was putting on weight and eating peanuts," he recalls.

"My work here is hugely rewarding, the clinicians are highly skilled and support team totally committed to a vision of excellence.

"Everything is pretty relaxed and we are happy to find time to just talk to people if they want to know what we can do for them."

Taser guns fired on 61 occasions says report

TASER stun guns were brandished more than 600 times in nine years by Staffordshire police officers – the highest rate in the country – but were actually only fired 61 times.

Figures by the Independent Police Complaints Commission (IPCC) show they were used 33 times per 100 officers. This compares to just 11 per 100 officers in Greater Manchester and just seven for London's Metropolitan Police.

But the review shows the force came fourth in the country for the total number of times they were actually fired between 2004 and 2013.

Violent

Staffordshire assistant Chief Constable Bernie O'Reilly said: "Taser is a less lethal option when dealing with violent situations or suspects and helps officers bring these incidents to a safe conclusion while reducing risk to the wider public, themselves and colleagues."

"Staffordshire Police has 429 officers trained in the use of Taser. We can confirm that out of the 626 Taser uses listed in the IPCC report, only 61 – less than 10 per cent – were occasions when a Taser was actually fired, equating to just three per 100 officers.

By Rob Gollidge

"Every time a taser is drawn a record is made. The force's Performance Assessment Unit undertakes regular spot checks to ensure this standard is maintained," she added.

"Tasers have made a significant contribution in a number of challenging situations, allowing police officers to bring violent offenders under control without causing injury to the person, wider members of the public, or the officers."

Riders scoot along for fundraising day

Scooter riders during their eight-mile round trip as part of the fundraising day for the Sands charity

AROUND 130 scooter riders revved up their machines in aid of a charity that supports grieving parents and their families.

Riders from across the region joined in a fundraising day in Cannock for stillbirth and neonatal death charity Sands.

They took part in an eight-mile round trip from Bridgton Social Club, in Walsall Road following a route to Penkridge and back.

The event was supported by the 4th Crusaders of Cannock Scooter Club who meet at the club on Thursday evenings. There was also a bike display, a barbecue, bouncy castle and three music acts including the band Liam.

Their finale performance featured a Soul sisters and Blues Brothers tribute.

Social club manager Elton Whitehouse said: "We had great weather and it was very well attended."

School turns clock back 100 years

Craig McKenzie, Sarah Roberts, Lindsey Allen, Julia McCumiskey, Peter Jones, Geoff Yallop and Barry Jessup

AIR raid sirens, military drills and lessons in code-breaking – it all sounded like something from a Home Guard training manual.

In fact it was all in a day's work for students at Wolgarston High School in Penkridge who experienced what life might have been like 100 years ago. Staff dressed in period outfits and there was even a re-enactment of a suffragette's protest. The exercise was designed to give a flavour of life before the outbreak of the First World War.

There were 1910-themed lessons across the subject departments, while an air raid siren donated by RAF Cosford sounded at break times instead of the usual bell.

There was a talk on giant airships, about the cinema of the time and a variety show.

Praise for police finances

POLICE bosses have been praised after their finances were rated 'outstanding' in the light of huge budget cuts.

They have insisted, however, that they will not become complacent.

Staffordshire Police will have lost 23 per cent of officers in the last five years by next March. But HM Inspectorate of Constabulary says it has made 'excellent progress' in cutting costs.

The new report also singles out West Midlands Police for praise for the way it has handled massive cuts in Government subsidies. Staffordshire Police & Crime Commissioner Matthew Ellis said: "The small group of professionals I brought together last year to establish my office have worked closely with Staffordshire Police to get budgets nicely on track.

Challenges

"I remain confident that by 2016 over £30million in savings and productivity will have been achieved meaning that despite less money coming in, budgets are on track right the way to 2020. We are not and will not become complacent and there are substantial challenges ahead."

The total Staffordshire Police workforce will have fallen by 18 per cent by March next year since 2010, from 3,772 to 3,089. The national average is 14 per cent.

And there will be 492 fewer officers, leaving the total at 1,669.

Stafford MP Jeremy Lefroy said: "Clearly there has been action taken to deal with the financial pressure but Matthew Ellis says the balances are on the right track until 2020, which is much better than other forces."

Oh Boy, George back in the club

BOY George will be re-viving Karma Chameleon when he gets back together with his 1980s chart-toppers Culture Club to headline Birmingham's NIA with a festive gig alongside fellow 80s star Alison Moyet.

Culture Club were one of the biggest bands of their era, selling in excess of 100 million singles and over 50 million albums.

The original line-up has reformed and will play the NIA on December 12 – the first time they've played live together in over 15 years.

Former Yazoo singer Moyet has been solo since 1984's Alf and in recent years has successfully relaunched her career, winning acclaim for her latest album The Minutes.

All that jazz ahead at Arena theatre

A WOLVERHAMPTON theatre will be hosting its second jazz season this autumn.

The season begins at the Arena in Wulfruna Street on October 11, with June Tabor, who is more famous as a folk singer, joining forces with the Quercus trio and Iain Ballamy for a concert.

Then on November 15 the theatre will be hosting Anglo-Scandinavian trio Phronesis, who will be performing from their highly rated album Life to Everything.

Indo-jazz clarinetist Arun Ghosh comes to the Arena with his six-piece band on December 4 to perform his South Asian Suite.

Very tasty selection of pop star names at the V Festival

A quality line-up at Glee Club

A BIRMINGHAM venue that brings the best singer/songwriters to the region has unveiled its autumn programme.

The Glee Club, in The Arcadian Centre in Chinatown, will feature the best of acoustic and electric roots music.

The programme starts on September 15 with a show from Welsh wonder and former Super Furry Animals frontman Gruff Rhys, who will play songs from his new American Interior album. He will be followed on September 17 by Ani DiFranco, who is making a welcome return to the venue following a majestic show in 2011.

Other highlights include a show on September 23 by Irish singer/songwriter Sharon Corr, touring her second solo album The Same Sun, Mary Gauthier on October 1, Nerina Pallot on October 29 and founding Byrds member Roger McGuinn on November 2.

THE Midlands' biggest music festival, V, is scheduled for 16 and 17 August at Weston Park, on the Staffordshire and Shropshire border.

It will feature a galaxy of star names across four stages, as well as big names in comedy, such as Alan Carr, Adam Hills, Paul Chowdhry and Rob Beckett.

The Saturday night line-up at Weston Park will feature Main Stage acts The Killers from Las Vegas, Paolo Nutini who is back in the big time with his hit album Cautious Love, and controversial songstress Lily Allen.

Completing the line up on the Main Stage will be Rudimental, Train, Newton Faulkner, M People and 80s disco sensations Chic featuring Nile Rogers.

The MTV Stage will include Axwell A Ingrosso, Tinie Tempah, Jason Derulo, Rizzle Kicks, Katy B, Childish Gambino, Aloe Blacc and Sheppard.

One of that venue's biggest crowds is bound to be for new UK soul star Sam Smith whilst Midlands rock fans of a certain vintage will be flocking to see Miles Hunt lead a revived The Wonder Stuff.

Futures

The Arena Stage will include a DJ set from Chase and Status as well as performances from Sub Focus, Rita Ora, Ceelo Green, Paul Heaton and Jacqui Abbott, Nina Nesbitt, Ella Eyre, Jess Blynn and Neon Jungle.

Meanwhile, the Futures Stage will welcome the best of new talents, as well as returning favourites, including Embrace, Howling Bells, Vance Joy, The Magic Numbers, Bewdley's Becky Hill, Chloe Howl and James Bay.

The festival on the Sunday will feature US superstar headliner Justin Timberlake being joined by Ed Sheeran, Example, Bastille, Kaiser Chiefs, Tom Odell, Kodaline and punk veterans The Stranglers.

The MTV Stage will be headlined by the mighty Elbow and could eclipse the other stages with a line-up that includes festival veterans the Manic Street Preachers, a Blondie re-energised by success at Glastonbury, Miles Kane, The Wailers, John New-

Justin Timberlake will headline V on Sunday man, Pixie Lott, rising star George Ezra, Starsailor and The Rifles.

The Arena Stage line-up comprises Alesso, Above and Beyond, the highly-rated Janelle Monae, 80s veterans The Human League, ballroom dancing pop star Sophie Ellis-Bextor, James Arthur, Foxes, Kiesza, All Saints and Fuse ODG.

Sunday's Futures Stage line-up will feature Alex Clare, Birdy, Hoodie Allen, The Strypes, Icona Pop, Josh Record, Neon Trees, To Kill a King and Dan Croll.

Day tickets are £89 with £8.90 booking fee, weekend tickets with no camping start at £165 (plus £10.15), with camping £189 (plus £10.95). See www.vfestival.com

No substitute for rock legends

ROCK legends The Who celebrate 50 years at Birmingham's NIA on December 7 and do not plan to tour again after 2015.

The band, featuring surviving original members singer Roger Daltrey and guitarist Pete Townsend, will return to the city for a celebration of a career during which they have sold more than 100 million albums.

Formed during the London Mod boom of 1964 with a lineup including bassist John Entwistle and drummer Keith Moon, they achieved success with hits like My Generation, I Can't Explain and Substitute.

Their albums Tommy, Live At Leeds and 1973's Quadrophenia elevated the band to iconic status.

Scottish comedy invasion at MAC

COMEDIAN Danny Bhoi will be appearing in Birmingham as part of his UK tour. The Scottish-Indian funnyman, will be coming to Edgbaston on September 26 – just over a week after the Scottish vote on independence. The comic will bring his Please Unkitch This Box tour to Midland Arts Centre in Cannon Hill Park.

Other comics coming to the MAC include fellow Scots Hardeep Singh Kohli with Hardeep Is Your Love on September 19 and Susan Calman with her Lady Like show on October 5.

Edinburgh Fringe favourite Mark Watson performs on October 4.

Melvyn Bragg
Melvyn Bragg's Radical Lives (BBC2, 9pm)
In the first of a new two-parter, Melvyn Bragg examines the lives, work and legacy of two men whose ideas have had enormous consequences in their own era and through the centuries. The first is John Ball, the great preacher of the 14th century. Ball's words and beliefs created groundbreaking revolutionary action. For many years he preached his in the south east of England, and was oppressed by the Church authorities he hated. By 1381 he joined forces with Wat Tyler in Kent and led a rebellion, dubbed the Peasants' Revolt. In this film, Bragg examines how they joined forces with many of London's disgruntled city dwellers; met with the king and made their demands.

Baby blues begin to kick in for a terrified Rosie

As the success of Call the Midwife and One Born Every Minute proved, pregnancy makes for great TV. But why are we all so fascinated by childbirth?

Writer Kay Mellor, the woman who gave us acclaimed drama series Band of Gold and The Syndicate, has her own theories. She says: "It's a life-changing situation, no matter who you are; whether you're a schoolgirl living in a high-rise council flat or a 46-year-old rich business woman – your life will never be the same again."

"The fact is there are very few 'lessons' on how to give birth and be a parent. We study for three or four years for a degree and yet we're supposed to know instinctively how to give birth and be a good parent – arguably one of the most important roles we'll ever have in life. The truth is young or old, we're all terrified of it – male and female alike."

So, it's no surprise to learn that Kay has been planning to write a series about pregnancies since at least 2000. "I had the idea round about the same time I had the idea for Fat Friends but there was more of an appetite for Fat Friends at the time and so In the Club was put on the back burner."

But now the series' due date has finally arrived. In the Club follows six mums-to-be who are all attending the same parenting class, including midwife Vicky (Christine Bottomley), businesswoman Roanna (Hermione Norris), newlywed Jasmin (Taj Atwal) and teaching assistant and blogger Kim (Katherine Parkinson).

All the women have their own issues to deal with, but the first episode focuses particularly on housewife Diane (Jill Halfpenny), who was told she and husband Rick (Will Mellor) would never conceive. In theory, they should be celebrating their 'miracle child', but when a scan reveals more than they bargained for, unemployed Rick feels under increased pressure to provide for his family.

Meanwhile, 15-year-old Rosie (Hannah Midgley) is trying to keep her pregnancy a secret from everyone, but that bump is getting ever harder to hide.

Kay had her first child at 16, and Rosie's story is particularly close to her heart, as the young actress playing her discovered. Hannah (who soap fans may remember as the previous incarnation of Emmerdale's Victoria Sugden), says: "She told me quite a bit within the first episode as it was nice for me to understand what a 15-year-old would go through when giving birth. She gave me lots of advice, which was really intriguing and intimate. It's so important for me to do it justice for her."

In fact, it seems the bonding process started at the audition. Hannah recalls: "I was really nervous as I saw something in Rosie that I could connect with and I understood her. I also really wanted my next break after leaving Emmerdale..."

"Kay said 'let's do this scene' and I was sobbing the whole way through. I got to the end of the scene and I looked up and Kay was streaming. I thought that even if I don't get the part, I can be proud of myself as it was a good audition."

And with five more emotional stories to tell, chances are she won't be the only one crying by the end of the series.

Hannah Midgley stars, In the Club, Tuesday, BBC1, 9pm

BEST OF THE REST

MONDAY

World War One Remembered from the Battlefield, BBC2, 6.30pm

Huw Edwards in London and Sophie Raworth in Belgium introduce live coverage of a commemorative event marking the centenary of the outbreak of the First World War. Dan Snow hosts from St Symphorian military cemetery near Mons, where British, Commonwealth and German soldiers are buried side by side. Gareth Malone leads a children's choir singing their own specially written song, and actor Eddie Redmayne and serving British and German soldiers read poems and testimonies. There is also a recording of a collaboration between the London Symphony Orchestra and the Berlin Philharmonic under the baton of conductor Simon Rattle, performing the last movement of Brahms's German Requiem and Butterworth's A Shropshire Lad.

Long Lost Family, ITV, 9pm

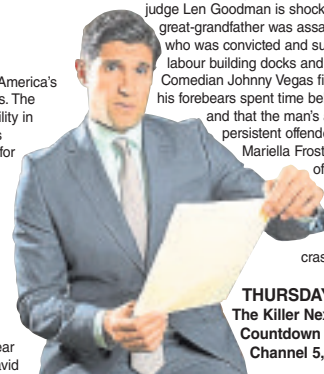

Inge Dart, 66, grew up in Kenya in the dying days of the British Empire, overshadowed by her domineering mother. After becoming pregnant at the age of 19, she was sent halfway around the world to give birth in secret. Banished to Surrey, she was taken in by a couple who looked after her until her daughter was born. Inge's childhood sweetheart Jeremy soon visited and the young lovers spent what little time they had with their baby. Long Lost Family takes on Inge's search for her child and, in a first for the programme, her daughter's own search for her father Jeremy. Davina McCall and Nicky Campbell present.

TUESDAY

Kids Behind Bars, ITV, 9pm

Documentary meeting some of America's most dangerous young offenders. The Wabash Valley Correctional Facility in Indiana is home to 40 teenagers serving terms of up to 65 years for a range of serious crimes. This programme follows those spending their first night in the maximum-security prison and others preparing to move up to adult jail. They include Blake Layman, 17, sentenced to 55 years for murder, and Ireland MacKean, 16, who says he wants to stay out of trouble behind bars as he starts a 10-year term for robbery. Narrated by David Morrissey.

Walter, Friday, BBC1, 9pm

WEDNESDAY
Secrets from the Clink, ITV, 9pm

The first of a two-part programme in which celebrities embark on an emotional journey to discover how their ancestors coped with serving time in Victorian prisons. Strictly Come Dancing judge Len Goodman is shocked to learn his great-great-grandfather was assaulted by his own son, who was convicted and subjected to hard labour building docks and quarrying for stone. Comedian Johnny Vegas finds out how one of his forebears spent time behind bars for stealing, and that the man's alcoholic wife was a persistent offender. Broadcaster Mariella Frostrup hears the story of her great-great-grandfather, an entrepreneur who resorted to fraud when the economy crashed in the 1870s.

THURSDAY
The Killer Next Door: Countdown to Murder, Channel 5, 8pm

It was Christmastime

2010, and landscape architect Joanna Yeates' family were getting extremely worried about her. The 25-year-old hadn't been seen for days, but it was on Christmas Day – eight days after she was killed – that Joanna's body was discovered. The second series of this at times hard-hitting programme begins with a dramatic reconstruction of the moments leading up to Joanna's death, and explains how she originally moved to Bristol for work in 2008 – her boyfriend Greg Reardon worked for the same company. In October 2010, they moved to a new flat, acquiring new neighbour – quiet Dutch engineer Vincent Tabak – but he would go on to murder Joanna two months later.

FRIDAY

Walter, BBC1, 9pm

One-off comedy drama, starring Adrian Dunbar as world-weary detective inspector Walter Gambon, whose workload increases when he is handed the cases of an officer who recently committed suicide – and ends up trying to track down yet another fellow officer who has gone so far undercover, nobody knows where he is. Helping Gambon is young, slightly clumsy and more than a little bit stupid detective constable Anne Hopkins – and together they track down the cop in question to a hardened drugs gang.

Happy days with arrival of the new Citroen C1

By Ian Donaldson

Buying a new Citroen C1 might come down to looks and how you get on with the nearest dealer.

For this latest little 'un from the French car maker is but one of a trio of cloned cars all made in the same factory and emerging more or less the same, minus some styling details and equipment levels.

It's also available as the Toyota Aygo or the Peugeot 108 and all three sit on a heavily reworked chassis from the older model that emerged from the same plant in the Czech Republic and was a strong seller among younger buyers and empty nesters looking for a smaller car.

Citroen reckons you'll fall for its C1 because of its 'cheerful smile'.

Yes, it does look a happy machine from full-on, thanks to the big oval headlights that mark it out from its Toyota and Peugeot close relatives.

It looks smart from the back too, and a lot more grown up than the old C1, even though both cars are pretty much the same size inside and out (which means room for four average-sized adults and a modestly proportioned boot).

The Citroen (and Peugeot) distance themselves from the Toyota offering with the option of a 1.2-litre engine instead of the 1.0-litre unit that's the only one available with the Japanese badge on the bonnet.

Toyota doesn't think enough people would choose the larger engine, built by Citroen and Peugeot, over its own smaller one (made by Toyota and sold to Citroen and Peugeot), to make it worthwhile adding to the brochure.

Perhaps not; Citroen reckons eight out of ten buyers will go for the 1.0-litre engine in its own offering. But Toyota does offer an automatic gearbox option (so do the others) and that's likely to be rare as hen's teeth on dealer order sheets.

Anyway, back to the cheerful C1, arriving in a car market made much tougher than when the first one arrived in 2005, with the likes of a new Fiat Panda and the VW Up!/SEAT Mii/Skoda Citigo clones all offering compelling opposition these days.

Same

Prices start at £8,245, which is the same as the Peugeot 108 but £350 less than Toyota charges for its lead-in Aygo. Toyota would reckon the difference was worth it because you'll have a better warranty (five years or 100,000 miles plays three years/60,000 miles) and the likelihood your used Toyota would be worth a bit more at resale time, simply because of the badge.

But logic plays less of a role in the purchase of a car than an accountant might like. If you think the C1 looks smart and is affordable, you're a long way down the buying path already.

Throw in a friendly local dealer and your feet are almost over the threshold as you feel for a pen to sign on the bottom line.

But which version to go for? The C1 range tops out at £11,935, which puts the car up against a host of larger cars with sterling reputations, even if it comes as standard with £850 worth of electric folding fabric roof that turns this model into one of the C1 Airscape versions, and includes the auto gearbox too.

More modestly priced, with a £350 premium over the 1.0 litre car, the 1.2 litre engine gives the C1 a livelier feel out of town, needs less gear changing and will hardly penalise you at the pumps.

You'd have to drive either version with real bravado to sink below 50mpg in everyday use.

Direct steering and a pliant ride make this little car feel rather grown up, although the modest prices are reflected in a cabin where well fitted but hard plastic rules instead of the softer surfaces enjoyed higher up the automotive food chain.

Some versions of the new C1 use a seven-inch touchscreen to mirror the apps on a driver's smartphone, including satellite navigation – if your phone can receive the necessary signal as you hunt for a turning deep in the countryside.

Back in town, where most C1 buyers will live, the car will prove a cheerful way to get around on more familiar ground.

Deception in the best way

By Graham Breeze

The new Citroen C4 Picasso is one of the most deceiving cars on the road today.

Outwardly the Picasso Exclusive+ e-HDi looks a neat and compact model on 17" alloys, but the cleverly designed exterior hides a benchmark-setting interior space and massive boot.

There's no doubting that this Picasso is the latest incarnation of the company's bold tradition of MPVs but by using PSA Peugeot Citroen's EMP2 platform the company has come up with something very different on the inside.

And the innovations doesn't stop with design either because the test model could top 1187mph and race to 62mph in 11.8 seconds yet still record combined fuel figures of 70.6mpg and CO2 emissions of only 105g/km. That means you may no road tax and can claim a benefit in kind rating of 17 per cent.

The four cylinder, stop/start, 115hp engine delivers impressively flexible performance, so you don't have to work the engine hard to make decent progress.

But the automatic model on test would not have been my personal choice. After a week behind the wheel I was still struggling to come to terms with the gear shift control which sits awkwardly on the dash behind the steering wheel. The automatic gear change was too clunky for me, even when using the steering wheel paddles the gear change was too evident.

The steering is light and easy around town providing just enough reassurance at motorway speeds, despite a little bit of rear-end movement in tight bends.

The test car came with cruise control, collision alert, park assist and sensors, reversing camera and a bloody annoying lane-change alert system which I just couldn't fathom how to switch off.

The fascia is made of strong and attractive stuff and Citroen have gone down the road of providing all the driver information on a very neat colour screen, which I found much easier to manipulate than many I have tried recently.

Stability

Citroen has paid their usual levels of attention to safety and you get stability control and all-round curtain airbags, which has helped the model achieve the maximum five stars in Euro NCAP tests.

Like most rivals, it has an engine immobiliser, deadlocks and locking wheel nuts to help fend off thieves.

The huge boot swallowed two sets of golf clubs and trolleys while the three comfortable rear seats can be folded or moved back and forth to suit just about every need. The fact that all three of these seats come with Isofix child-seat mountings adds to the practicality, and there's enough head- and legroom for six-footers.

'The cleverly designed exterior hides a benchmark interior space.'

Every C4 Picasso comes with alloy wheels, Bluetooth and a six-speaker stereo with USB. A digital radio is standard from the second trim level and range-topping models have everything from adaptive cruise control to a front passenger's seat that reclines like an old-school business-class chair. The leather covered steering wheel adjusts neatly for rake and height and the half leather seats are an attractive and strong feature of this model.

The C4 Picasso Exclusive + e-HDi 115 ETG6 on test would set you back £24,455 but with metallic paint, park assist, Xenon headlights, security pack and space saver spare wheel that mounts up to £23,550.

Jeep Grand Cherokee a big player in its sector

By Graham Breeze

Jeep has just launched an all-new Grand Cherokee model but you will have to wait if you want the 3.0CRD V6 variety which was recently on test.

The new model will initially only be available in 2.0 litre variants so I was glad to get to grips with the bigger diesel for a week.

You just can't question the credentials of this formidable off-roader, which comes with loads of equipment, but air springs are a must if you intend to spend most of the time on-road.

The 3.0-litre V6 diesel engine is available in two tunes. The 188bhp version is available only in entry-level trim, while the rest of the range gets 247bhp.

On test was the 247bhp version in CRD trim, a slick eight-speed auto transmission with a low-ratio.

By any standards the Grand Cherokee is big and you would have to say a bit cumbersome.

But you have to remember it's a Jeep with more history than the competition and that its origins lie off-road.

It's not quiet either, with engine noise always a problem, though wind and road noise are on a par if not better than some of the opposition.

The Grand Cherokee is now nothing like the early model which left you in little doubt that it was developed as a workhorse.

Things are a lot more refined today and while not a cheap option it does cost less spec-for-spec than its main rivals.

Comfortable

Huge, armchair-like seats make it easy to find a comfortable position while the dash is entirely dominated by a huge colour touch screen that's easy to use despite the bewildering array of information on offer.

There's 782 litres of boot space despite the presence of a full-size spare beneath the floor – that's massive and an outstanding feature in the sector.

It's disappointing though that there is no seven-seat option.

You do get masses of leg and headroom for all five seats though and comfort levels are a million miles away from those experienced in previous models.

You're pretty safe in a Jeep with front, side, curtain and driver's knee airbags, plus various systems warning you if you're about to have an incident.

Impressive

Combined fuel consumption figures of 37.7mpg are very impressive, though you won't win many friends these days with omission figures of 198g/km.

There's a top speed of 126mph and 0-62mph in 8.2 seconds and while fuel bills might be low expect to pay a high cost for insurance with the model sitting in the group 43 level.

On the road, the 3.0litre Summit will set you back just under £50,000 but you do get climate control, automatic wipers, USB and auxiliary inputs, front and rear parking sensors, a rear-view camera, leather upholstery, a powered tailgate, electrically adjustable and heated front seats, and a stereo upgrade.

There's also sat-nav, a sunroof, blind-spot monitor and adaptive cruise control and a 19-speaker Harman Kardon stereo.

You get a real sense of being in control when driving the Grand Cherokee, after all you do look down on most other vehicles.

But most of all you do feel safe. For those used to driving the bigger 3.0-litre models, the wait for the new-look model will probably be worthwhile. Once you have owned a vehicle this size the rest are irrelevant.

You can get a slice of the action with new Leon FR

By John Griffiths

You can't have your cake and eat it, so the old saying goes: but like so many things in the motoring world technology has changed all that.

You can have a car that is both fast and frugal, and one of the best examples currently on the market is SEAT's Leon FR, the diesel-fuelled equivalent of the mighty Cupra.

In three-door coupe body style only, it's sleek, stylish and better equipped than many more expensive 'premium' saloons: it's also capable of tackling the 0 to 62mph in 7.4 seconds and yet it is also capable of averaging more than 62mpg with low CO2 emissions of 119g/km.

That's with the DSG automated transmission: the six-speed manual isn't any quicker but fuel consumption and CO2 emissions are a bit lower still.

But it isn't only quick in the sprint: with 380NM of torque (more than a Porsche Cayman) from as low as 1,750rpm it pulls strongly from the word go, unleashing convincing in-gear acceleration for rapid exits to corners and effective overtaking.

There are rivals – the flagships of the diesel-powered Golf GTIs and Audi A3s which are, of course, from the same stable, with the same engine. There's also the BMW 1 Series M Sport, but you'd have to pay between £2,200 and £5,000 more for one of these different badges.

Beauty is in the eye of the beholder but the FR is arguably the real head-turner of the bunch, with its sculptured body work and LED headlights and taillights.

Unlike many hot hatchbacks of the past, the Leon is one of the most complete cars around, and one that will bring a smile to your face and, with room for five in comfort, it's also perfect for transporting the family. Like all new generation Leons, there's more head and legroom and boot space is up by around ten per cent, to 390 litres with five on board.

The FR has sports suspension and the car is lowered by some 15mm, with steering that is light yet positive which makes tackling twisty roads a pleasure.

The top FRs (there's also a 150Ps version) also get a multi-link suspension system, designed to ensure maximum contact between tyre and road. And like all new-generation Leons, it's considerably lighter and has a wider track than its predecessor to improve handling.

Smooth

The sharp handling doesn't come at the expense of a typically harsh sporting car ride: in fact it is notably smooth and quiet. It has a combination of real-world performance, passenger comfort and refinement which would make it a serious competitor in the grand tourer class.

At the car's heart is a two-litre, turbocharged diesel (the same used in the Golf and Audi) with 184ps of power, or 181bhp in old money, which for SEAT is reserved solely for FR models.

The test car was fitted with the group's DSG dual clutch, six-speed transmission which is renowned for its smooth and responsive operation.

Naturally there are paddles behind the steering wheel for rapid manual changes. I find the DSG's electronic controls are intelligent enough for almost any conditions, but the ability to easily down shift for fine control on a steep incline, for example, is sometimes welcome.

Inside, the centre of the dash is dominated by the colour touch screen control for, among other things, the premium sound system and satnav. Most stereo, trip and telephone controls are duplicated on the steering wheel.

The touch screen also controls, simply and intuitively, features such as the comprehensive trip computer and SEAT's driver profile system: two quick dabs of the index finger and you can rapidly set the car up in normal, eco or sport mode, or indeed to your individual preferences.

Usefully, though, you can bumble along in eco mode and do your bit for the environment but, should an overtaking opportunity present itself, a nudge of the gear selector takes you straight into sport mode, dropping a gear or two and unleashing all that power and torque.

Driver profile alters throttle response, steering feel and, in DSG versions, gearbox response, to suit the circumstances: for example in sport mode holding the lower gear to higher rpm.

In 'normal' mode, the throttle is less sharp, the steering feels lighter and the DSG will change gear hold the higher gears for longer, for better economy and smooth progress around town.

Eco mode takes that profile a little further and even alters the climate control and engine stop/start systems to maximise fuel savings.

It's part of a raft of technology fitted to the FR, much of it designed to make the car even safer. Apart from the now usual ABS and stability controls, there is a limited slip differential for improved cornering performance plus hill start assist.

NOTICE TO READERS
Please be aware that when purchasing a puppy there are some simple guidelines you can follow to ensure that you are not purchasing from a Puppy Farmer:

1. Try to ensure you visit the puppy whilst it is still with its Mother.
2. Do not arrange to collect a puppy from any other location than that of the breeder.
3. Ensure that you are given any KC documentation, if pedigree. Whilst Midland News Association publications take great care to avoid publication of advertisements from Puppy Farmers we cannot accept any liability should readers purchase from this kind of establishment.

Seconds get the better of Old Wulfs

Cannock 2nds 187-6
Old Wulfs 2nds 110-8
Winning draw Cannock
CANNOCK travelled to Old Wulfs and came away with the winning draw. Batting first the visitors posted 187-6 with Dan Wood scoring 63 and Matt Davenport 46.

Bowling, Cannock took regular wickets but were unable to take the final two and Old Wulfs hung on for the losing draw.
Cannock 3rds 57
Springvale 2nds 199-9
Springvale won by 142 runs.

Cannock slipped to another defeat, this time away to Springvale, as their difficult season continued. Again player availability was a problem but a good performance in the field saw them take nine wickets whilst restricting Springvale to 199. Paul Martin taking 4 for 46. Batting was another story as the visitors were all out for just 57, James Wilson top scoring with 16.

Cannock 4ths 93-4
Bloxwich 4ths 92
Cannock won by six wickets

Cannock's winning run continued with a six wicket home victory over league leaders Bloxwich. Fielding first Cannock restricted Bloxwich to just 92 all out.

Nordley claim top spot with victory

WILLENHALL NORDLEY A crushed bottom side Hawkins Sports 12-2 to move top of the Dudley Building Society League Premier Division, writes Dave Law.

County star Scott Simpson was in top form on his home patch while Ashley Dace (21-18) was the top performer for the visitors.

Five days after a close encounter between Chadsmoor and M&B Cheslyn Hay in the Summit Garage Premier League, there was an equally close game in the Dudley Building Society League.

Chadsmoor once again edged it, this time by seven shots, with Allan Parsons wrapping up the points with a scintillating 21-1 victory.

Bowling

But the Brewers will be happy with the five points they gained as Chadsmoor rarely drop so many points at home.

Dudley Dell remain very much in the title race despite a 10-4 defeat on their visit to Stafford's Victoria Park. Tony Gill was a 21-1 winner for the hosts.

The local derby between Woodfield A and Penn A went the way of the home side, who won 8-6 with Woodfield's Rob Stewart producing the best card of the game winning 21-6.

Windmill's home green is one of the trickiest in the area and Short Heath Liberal found it difficult as they fell to an 11-3 defeat.

The George beat Willenhall Nordley B by the same scoreline. Darren Wood was another bowler allowing his opponent a single shot. The defeat leaves Willenhall Nordley B in a fight with Short Heath Liberal to avoid the drop into Division One.

The league's Junior Merit takes place on Sunday (2pm) at Essington Bowling Club.

Premier Division: Victoria Park 10 Dudley Dell A 4, Windmill 11 Short Heath Liberal A 3, Willenhall Nordley A 12 Hawkins Sports 2, Chadsmoor Progressive A 9 M&B Cheslyn Hay A 5, Woodfield A 8 Penn A 6, The George 11 Willenhall Nordley B 3

Division One: Lea Hall 12 Hilly House 2, Pennfields A 11 Bylet 3, Cradley Sports 12 Glasscutters 2

Division Three: Wombourne A 9 Woodfield C 5, Springvale 8 Penkridge 6

Lockmen enjoy a double bonus

Willenhall Town 10
Dept of Works and Pensions 2

THE Lockmen had the double bonus of a good work out against a committed works team with the addition of raising funds for Compton Hospice.

A fine performance in the first half-hour saw the works team take a deserved 2-0 lead within the first half hour but The Lockmen wiped that out by half-time.

On 35 minutes Eddie Wilson netted after Harry Rickus had seen a shot blocked before Harry Basra scored with a thumping header.

On the stroke of half-time The Lockmen hit the inside of the post, but the ball rebounded to Harry Rickus to net from the edge of the box. Matt Dorgan scored at the start of the second period before Ryan Cahill netted twice in quick succession.

Tony Clift scored on the hour with his first touch to make it 7-2 before Dorgan added a penalty. Callum Foster then weaved his way through three tackles before rolling home on 80 minutes.

Jumor Rideout rounded off after a Paul Lomu shot hit the inside of the post before the ball was guided home.

Dicko slams in the winner with last kick

Crewe 0 Wolves 1
FOUR days on from accusing his players of lacking desire and hunger, demanding Kenny Jackett was much happier with Wolves' performance.

Wolves returned to winning ways after drawing 2-2 at Peterborough thanks to a last-gasp strike from Nouha Dicko.

But for all their possession in stifling temperatures, the head coach will be looking for more clear-cut chances and more end product when the action starts for real in 13 days' time against Norwich.

"It was a very competitive game," said Jackett. "We dominated possession, which is good, because that's the first thing you have to do - win the battle for control of the game."

Lacking "We didn't do enough with the ball around the box when we were perhaps too intricate, and for the majority of the time our crossing was somewhat lacking. But we showed good control of the game and I was pleased with a clean sheet."

"Getting a zero against and dominating possession are two of the things that make you a good side."

"After that you're looking to find that little extra around the box and perhaps find the player who's going to go past someone."

"That's what happened for our goal and Nouha has the confidence to roll the centre-half, go past the keeper and produce an excellent finish."

After playing centre-back for the last 20 minutes at

Football

Peterborough, captain Sam Ricketts played the full 90 at the heart of the defence, with Matt Doherty at right-back and Richard Stearman on the bench after his errors led to both goals against Posh.

Michael Jacobs showed some classy touches and twice put through Dave Edwards, who took up some fantastic positions playing off lone striker Leon Clarke.

Wolves dominated the first 45 minutes and created several chances. But they weren't as commanding after the break, while the home side hit the woodwork in either half.

Wolves, who started with the lively Rajiv Van La Parra after Bakary Sako was withdrawn as a precaution with a groin injury in the warm-up, saw Crewe go closest to scoring just before half-time when Oliver Turton's rising shot was tipped over by Iker Klemme. From the resulting corner by Chris Atkinson, George Ray's header hit the bar.

Dicko snatched an unlikely winner with virtually the last kick.

Scholars too strong for youthful Vale

The Scholars celebrate Nathan Waite making it 3-0 in the friendly against Port Vale

Chasetown 4 Port Vale 0
CHASETOWN swept aside a youthful Port Vale squad with a first-half hat-trick from Nick Wellecome made of a strong display.

The home side could not have made a better start with Wellecome netting inside the first minute with a close-range finish.

Wellecome made it 2-0 in the 17th minute with a crisp shot into the bottom corner after being teed up by Luke Bottomer. Four minutes before the break, slick passing between Lee Butler and Wellecome set up strike partner Nathan Waite to finish.

There was still time for another Chasetown goal as Wellecome completed his treble with a header.

Craig Harris' men kept up the pressure after five half-time substitutions and Simon Brown twice went close to setting up Jazz Luckie within the opening few minutes of the second period.

Chasetown keeper Curtis Pond made a late, comfortable save from Vale's Dan Wakeham, but, that aside, the Scholars were very much in control.

Chasetown: Bateman (Pond, HT), Evans (Stephens, 70 mins), Ravenhill (Beckett, HT), Slater (Downes, 77 mins), Johnson, Downes (Edwards, HT), Butler (McDonald, 70 mins), Parsons, Wellecome (Luckie, HT), Waite (Nadat, 62 mins), Bottomer (Brown, HT).

Injury woes piling up for Wood

Sporting Khalsa 1
Walsall Wood 1

IT finished all square in a bruising encounter at the Aspray Arena.

Craig Deakin took advantage of defensive indecision on the right edge of the box before crossing to the far post for Leon Taylor to power a header into the net.

The equaliser came on 67 minutes when Drew Aiton was harshly penalised for a challenge on Kinch wide right, the ball delivered to the far post and Marvin Nisbet looped a header back across keeper Dale Faultless and into the corner of the net.

The game could prove costly for Wood, already without eight players for the opening game.

Records blitzed as Cannock stay top

CANNOCK Cricket Club's overseas batting sensation Anthony Sams re-wrote the record books in the Staffordshire Clubs Cricket Championship premier division fixture against Old Wulfs.

Having been put in by the visitors, Cannock lost Andy Lefeaver with the score at 12. This bought Australian Sams out to join captain Will Fleet.

The pair added 199 before Fleet departed for a run-a-ball 54. Sams and new man Benton added 178 before the latter departed for 55 and Cannock declared after 39.4 overs on 389-3.

Sams was not out 261 off 118 balls with 38 fours and seven sixes, the highest individual score in Staffs Clubs history, and the highest score for Cannock, beating the 256 scored by Paul Humphries. He has now amassed more than 1,300 runs so far this season.

The early declaration meant 60 overs were available to bowl out Old Wulfs and opening bowlers Ed Fleet and Qamar Abbas set about the task in hand, skittling the opposition in 10.5 overs for just 24.

Fleet ended with 6-8 and Abbas 4-9 with extras top scorer at seven.

The victory margin was 365 runs, another SCCC record as Cannock stay top.

Cardiff show experience

EXPERIENCE in front of goal was the difference as Cardiff City Under-21s defeated Chasetown 3-0.

Chasetown were the invited guests following their friendship since the FA Cup of 2008 as the Welsh championship side opened their new stand at the Cardiff City Stadium.

Cardiff took the lead inside 10 minutes of the game when Kadeem Harris seized on a defensive error and managed to dink the ball over the advancing John Bateman.

Tommy O'Sullivan had his effort saved before Bradley Williams drilled home the rebound.

Chasetown struck the crossbar midway through the second half via Nathan Waite but the Bluebirds extended their advantage with a sweet drive from Danny Johnson.

Keeper is caught Flatt as Hednesford Diggin

Hednesford Town 1
Wolves Under-21s 0

Football

AS THE Wolverhampton Wanderers team was announced at Keys Park last night, all eyes were on the banished first-teamers Kevin Doyle, Tongo Doumbia.

And, playing his first game since weekend tabloid allegations surrounding his private life, Jamie O'Hara - but it was The Pitmen who won over the expectant crowd with a performance full of grit and determination.

Despite O'Hara and Doumbia looking a class above at times it was former Brackley Town striker Steve Diggin who hogged the limelight in a frantic opening 15 minutes as he first advanced down the right and superbly chipped the helpless Jon Flatt from the edge of the area to open the scoring 11 minutes in and then, just 90 seconds later, was felled by Doumbia in the penalty area.

Diggin picked himself up but sent a weak penalty to Flatt's left who easily got down to save the spot-kick and prevent the hosts taking a shock 2-0 lead.

To Hednesford's credit they showed superb application in preventing O'Hara from influencing the game too much.

And after Alex Melbourne strongly won a tackle in the middle of the park Marvin Robinson raced clear only to shoot straight at Flatt.

Just past the half hour, and with Wolves playing themselves into the game, Jim Kellermann blazed over after a short free-kick.

Jamie Ashmore, once again impressive at right wing-back for the home side, forced Flatt into an acrobatic save from a deep cross and Robinson headed straight at the keeper from a Ben Bailey long throw before Glenn Walker and Ashmore combined for Robinson to force another smart save.

Bradley Reid headed wide after capitalising on sloppy Hednesford defending just before the break but, as the second half became disjointed by substitutions, neither side looked too likely to score another goal and The Pitmen held on.

Hednesford Town: Crane, Ashmore (Griffiths 69), Campion ©, McCone, Francis, Bailey, Osborne (Markall 73), Melbourne, Robinson (Glover 46), Diggin (11) (Sullivan 56), Walker (Taylor 50).

Pics hit Hayes for six

Heath Hayes 1
Rushall Olympic 6

RUSHALL completely overran Heath Hayes at the Coppice Colliery ground for their second pre-season win in what proved an entertaining game.

Rushall took the lead when Courtney Baker-Richardson who sidefooted home in the first minute.

Hayes, who will take their place in the new Midland Football League, equalised on three minutes when Tyler volleyed home.

Charlie Ntamark had the ball in the net for the Pics on 39 but it was ruled out for offside before the same player was brought down three minutes before the break and Josh Craddock converted from the spot.

On 55 minutes it was three when Sam Brooks intercepted a loose ball in his own half and drove forward, releasing the ball for Aaron Farrell to fire home from close range.

Craig Marshall made it four on 70 minutes with a volley and then headed home a Luke Keen cross.

The scoring was complete on 85 minutes when Farrell unleashed an unstoppable right foot shot.

Win completes Wulfs friendlies

AFC WULFRUNIANS completed their pre-season schedule with a 2-1 victory at home to United Counties League Premier Division side AFC Rushden & Diamonds.

Nathan Rose-Laing and Scott Stevenson gave Wulfs a 2-0 half-time lead before Matt Pinder pulled a goal back for Diamonds.

PITMEN PUT ON POSITIVE SHOW

Hednesford Town 1 Wrexham 1

HEDNESFORD Town continued their positive preparations ahead of the new season on August 9 with another encouraging performance.

The Pitmen faced higher placed opposition this time as they took on Wrexham of the Football Conference.

Assistant Manager, Larry Chambers was content after the game with the work-out his players had in the blistering mid-summer heat, with a 3-5-2 formation incorporating a central defence of Ben Bailey, Francino Francis and Paul McCone working very well.

"Today proved to be a decent work-out for the lads. "Specifically, I thought our shape was good, defensively we were solid, apart from the goal conceded and the players acquitted themselves very well in the difficult conditions."

Debutant

The Pitmen had the game's first shot on goal within 60 seconds as Steve Diggin worked hard down the left channel and set up debutant Glenn Walker who fired his shot over the cross bar.

Within 12 minutes the home side were deservedly in the lead as Darren Campion curled a superb free kick into the penalty area and Ben Bailey rose highest to powerfully head home beyond the stationary Dimitar Evtimov.

Many fans present at Keys Park were delighted to see the return of last season's goal scoring phenomenon Elliott Durrell after his transfer to The Dragons in January. Following a warm welcome before kick-off, the striker very nearly repaid the Hednesford fans with an equaliser for his new team on 21 minutes.

Deane Keates hit a low free kick from 30 yards which Dan Crane had to stoop low to keep out at full stretch. Durrell was quickest to the rebound but he scuffed his left foot shot which allowed the Hednesford keeper to make another smart save.

With Connor Jennings particularly lively for the visitors The Pitmen fought hard for the remainder of the half to keep their lead, which Diggin could have doubled but miss-kicked when given a sight of goal.

The equaliser came shortly afterwards when a Keates corner fizzed across the goal mouth and Ross White was left in space to volley into the net.

The incessant heat took its toll in the second half but both teams had realistic chances to nick the game, albeit with Wrexham on top in terms of possession.
